Vandals smash school windows

By Ruth Hutchings GREEN RIVER - Residents of this community can sympathize with persons connected with the recently devastated cemetery, conc. 9, Markham. Similar vandalism occurred at Brunswick Cemetery here. And it's still going on, only this time at the school, where no less than 50 windows have been smashed since the summer period started. The children involved are not aware of the seriousness of the matter. As one lad put it: "Let Dad pay, he's got lots of dough".

Mrs. Jack Nighswander entertained her brother, Mr. Alex Gray and his sons, Owen and Alvin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Veen have returned home to Holland, after visiting with their son and
