Mrs. George Wood

Pupils join in honoring 90-year-old teacher

PINE ORCHARD - Ninety-five callers paid their respects, June 17, to Mrs. George Wood, Pine Orchard, on the occasion of her 90th birthday.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Willson, on the 5th Line. Many of those who called were former or present music students, who studied under Mrs. Wood. Despite her 90 years, Mrs. Wood remains active. She continues to teach piano, and has for many years been organist at Pine Orchard Union Church. She is active in church work, and a longstanding member of the Women's Institute.

Marijuana planting

UNIONVILLE - Jonny Marijuana seed has struck again.

According to police, a Unionville resident reported July 17 that he had found "a peculiar plant growing in his yard". Detective Tsonis, assigned to investigate concluded that the plant was marijuana.

His report stated that the plant was growing wild, and in very small quantities.
