Home sold
 The sale of the Arthur Dowsell home, Park Drive, North, is reported to Mr. Fred Alsop, Main Street. It is understood Mr. and Mrs. Alsop contemplate living there.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rycroft, Rosemount, Montreal, spent a few days with their daughter, Phyllis Stowell, Valley Road, Stouffville R.R.2.

Heart attack fatal to Sandford trucker

SANDFORD - A heart attack, suffered by well-known Sandford trucker, Murray Tindall, Aug. 8, proved fatal, despite all efforts to revive him.
 The seizure occurred on the farm of Paul Whitehead, R.R.1, Uxbridge, only minutes after he had loaded an animal into the vehicle. He was stricken as he walked up the ramp to close down the racks. He was only 45.
 Born at Altona, the son of Melvin and Mabel Tindall, he moved to Sandford, north-west of Uxbridge, in 1956.
 Murray Tindall was an ambitious, hard-working man and his business showed the success of his efforts. Only recently, he had added to it, purchasing the Morley Leek Transport operating in Uxbridge.
 It was eleven years ago that the deceased had any indication of heart trouble. However, his recovery appeared complete and his death came as a great shock, not only in the Sandford community, but in all areas where he was known so well.
 Besides his wife, the former Nora Harman, he leaves two sons, Melvin, R.R.1, Uxbridge; Bruce at home; his mother, Mrs. Mabel Tindall, Altona; a brother, Harry, also of Altona and two sisters, Mrs. Florence Symes, Stouffville and Mrs. Aylmer Carter, R.R.1, Claremont.
 Hundreds of people called at the Low and Low Funeral Home, Uxbridge, to express their sympathy. The floral tributes were beautiful. Interment was made in Stouffville Cemetery.
 Pall bearers were - Donald Boyd, George Geelink, Wilbert Welsh, Harvey Meek, Wm. Hackner and Dennis Kerr. Flower-bearers were four nephews, Norman and Kenneth Tindall, Earl Carter and Glenn Reesor.

A Geranium 'tree' with 70 blooms
 Ever heard of a geranium 'tree'? Mrs. Joe Winterstein, Second Street, Stouffville has one, standing 4 feet in height and boasting 70 blooms. The plant is now in its seventh summer.
 -Jim Thomas.

Parkview residents on 'trip' to B.C.

STOUFFVILLE
 Mr. J.M. Nighswander, Administrator of Parkview Home, showed slides of a recent trip to British Columbia. His daughter, Helen, provided the musical interlude, playing 'Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring' on the violin.
 The regular Sunday evening service was conducted, August 13 by Don Wilkinson. His wife, Doreen, sang two lovely numbers.
 Recent visitors to Parkview include: Don and Dorothy Begg for Mrs. Chamberlain; Mrs. H. Hird for Mrs. Pollard; Mr. and Mrs. L. Gillespie for Mr. and Mrs. L. Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Gooderham of Port Hope for Mrs. J. Darlington and Mr. Cosburn; Mr. and Mrs. C.K. Keeble of Belleville, for Mrs. M. Macklem; Ken, Phyllis and Shane, Scott of Winnipeg for Mr. and Mrs. A. Dixon; Mrs. P. Upton of Claremont for Mr. Wrenshall; Jack Bunker of Richmond Hill for Mrs. M. Bunker; Mrs. R. Miller and family for Miss A. Miller; Marion Johnson, Mrs. E. Gorrell for Miss F. Neate; Miss Bonnie Brown for Mrs. I. Tindall; Gord and Isobel Overland of Kingston for Mr. D.J. Tran; Mike and Nancy Copeland for Miss Bailey; Russell and Mary Boynton for Miss Bond; Mr. and Mrs. John Timbers of Sunderland for Mr. and Mrs. H. Degeer and Mrs. Mabel Weldreck; Mrs. John Dike for Mrs. Crosby; P. Brandon and Bruce for Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Allen.

Late Robt. E. Ellis
 Rev. Douglas Davis conducted the committal service, Saturday, from O'Neill's Funeral Home, for Mr. Robert E. Ellis, Loretta Cresc., North, following his passing, Aug. 10. Mr. Ellis died at his residence following a period of declining health. He was 74. Surviving, besides his wife, the former Marguerite Paradis, are two daughters, Helen (Mrs. H. Weldon), Ottawa; Eva (Mrs. G. Behnke), Chatham and eight grandchildren.

Farmer - 'down under'

STOUFFVILLE - was impressed with one location visited during his short stay here - Niagara Falls.
 Gordon Forsyth, 24, is from Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, Australia, taking part in a 7 1/2 month world tour.
 While in town, he stayed at the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Forsyth (no certain relation), and was shown around the area by son Wayne.
 It was Gordon's first time in Canada.
 The 'home' farm in Wagga Wagga, contains 2,500 acres. There, they pasture 19,000 sheep and raise 200 head of beef.
 While Canada, in particular, Ontario, would have trouble topping this, Gordon

Break-in
 Police are investigating the theft of $15 from an apartment at 300 Main Street West. At the same time, coin boxes in the building's laundryroom, were forced open and the contents removed.
