Can you beat it?
Four pounds, 8 ounces - that was the weight of the prize-winning potato in a Tribune-sponsored competition at Markham Fair last year. The grower was Murray Leek, Mount Albert. Can any of you district spud men top that? With the kind of growing season it's been, perhaps not. But why not enter the contest anyway. Leave your potato sample (name and address attached) in at The Tribune Office, prior to Sept. 23, or deliver it personally to Ivan Norton at the Fair. Judging will take place Sept. 27.

Peter Harris, advertising manager on the staff of the Gravenhurst News, and formerly with The Tribune, was a weekend visitor in town.

Piano examinations
Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto piano examinations are passed by local students. We congratulate Susan Reeh, 49 Hawkrigde, Markham - Gr. 2; Susan Newton, Glenbourne Park Dr., R.R.1 Unionville - Gr. 2; Edna Banks, R.R.4 Stouffville - Gr. 3 (Hon); Betty Hoover, R.R.1 Stouffville - Gr. 6, who are among pupils studying with Mrs. Doris M. Middleton, Conc. 9, Markham.

Three coaches
When rail commuter service was first introduced here, only a single car was considered necessary to handle the passenger traffic. Later, a second was added. On Friday night, the unit contained three coaches, an apparent sign of its popularity.
