

'Worlds of Women'

MARKHAM - A course, entitled "Worlds of Women", offered by Seneca College, will extend over a period of ten weeks, with classes, beginning in October, held at the Markham Centennial Library and the Markham Arena.

Gatherings are weekly, Tuesday or Thursday, from 9.15 to 11.45 a.m.

The aim of the course is to assist "women of all ages and backgrounds to gain knowledge of themselves and the world around them". Discussion groups are a central feature of the program.

In addition, Seneca will be offering courses in Creative Writing, Macrame and Introduction to Psychology.

Information is available from the Program Co-ordinator, Irma Melville, 294-5762.

To West Coast Gail Newmarch, Main Street East, and Kim Hassard, Lloyd Avenue, returned Sept. 2 from a 4-week bus trip, that took them as far west as Vancouver Island.

Older than its beholder

Old-fashioned lamps never lose their appeal. There were many on display at the 9th annual Antique Exhibition and Sale, sponsored by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, in the Markham Arena, Sept. 8 and 9. This particular piece, (priced at $60), is admired by pretty Sandra Starkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Starkey, Parkway Ave., Markham.

Union Villa Senior Citizen's Home Citizens

Here is an opportunity for you to become part of a unique community where the resident has a voice in Villa affairs, through a Residents Council. Attractive grounds surround the Villa, which is within easy walking distance of shops and banks. Facilities include lounges, library, greenhouse, enclosed courtyard, chapel, craft room, auditorium, and beauty shop. Home cooked meals are attractively served in a spacious and pleasant dining room.

Union Villa is accepting applications for residence. For information regarding accommodation and rates call the Villa at 297-2822.

Thieves 'clean house'

MARKHAM - James Pinder, Wellington Street West, made the mistake of leaving his apartment door unlocked.

His loss has been estimated at $285. Removed from the premises was a 19 inch television set, an electric iron, china, crystal, towels, electric kettle, clothes, an alarm clock and other miscellaneous articles.

Police have a description of two suspects.

A Sea Rover Rally will be held in the Stouffville Baptist Church, Sept. 22. Guest speaker will be Mr. Vince Woodhouse. He will present illustrated stories for the boys and girls.

Airport decision final charges Markham mayor

YORK REGION - Airport Project Manager Gordon McDowell that "until the government gives the green light, many studies would be premature."

Speaking before a meeting of York Regional Council, Sept. 7, Mr. Roman was sceptical concerning a comment by this, but conceded that "some work would be wasted if the site was not confirmed."

"I feel we are dealing with a decision that has already been made, and the Airport will be in Pickering," stated Mr. Roman. The federal representative denied
