

Top 4-H dairy showman

MARKHAM - Ross Wightman, Assistant Agricultural Representative for York Region, was enthusiastic over the response of 4-H members in completing their projects for entry at the Markham Fair. Usually, he said, members started off with enthusiasm, but lost interest.

There were 18 calves entered in the Markham 4-H Dairy competition and 13 in the Beef show.

Winner of the most prestigious award in the dairy section was Don Risebrough, R.R.2, Markham, who won the inter-club championship as well as top awards for Champion Calf and Showman.

Other winners were: Markham 4-H - Beef - Champion calf and winner of the Glenburn Farm Trophy - Jane Yusko, R.R. 1, Unionville; Champion Showman and winner of the Geo. Elliot Trophy - Tim Henshaw, R.R. 3, King. Inter-club Championship - Beef - Champion Steer - Blair Smith, R.R. 1, Gormley; Champion Beef Showman - Mary Dike, R.R. 3, Newmarket. York County Beef Improvement Assoc. Award - Ralph Smalley, R.R.3, Mt. Albert.

This is the first year an inter-club 4-H competition has been held for beef cattle, at the Fair. There were 40 entries and 45 in the inter-club dairy section.

'Muffin' and six future champions

'Muffin Sweet Charity' is a champion in the show ring and a champion at home, with the arrival, recently, of six future champions. The mother, an Old English Sheep Dog is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bolton, 19th Avenue, Dickson's Hill. The little 'muffins' arrived Sept. 6. —Jim Thomas.

Art award

MARKHAM - Fifteen year old Mary Artymko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Artymko, 14th Avenue, R.R.1, Milliken, won the Art Championship (Jr. Division), at Markham Fair.

Mary, eldest of nine, is a Grade 10 student at St. Joseph's Morrow Park High School.

Her entry, showing a glove, pair of boots and a cane, under the title 'Still Life', was admired by many.

"She could draw ever since she was able to hold a pencil", said Mrs. Artymko. She studies under the instruction of Bernice Lawton, Markham.

Trio smash up apartment

MARKHAM - Damage to a second floor apartment at 128A Main Street, Markham, has been estimated at over $200, after two men and a woman entered the premises and proceeded "to rearrange the furniture".

in the possession of one of the trio, the same person charged with the theft of a pair of shoes from the Dublin Place Apartment, the same day.

Only smoke

According to York Regional Police, Edward Ferrill, 21, David Pierce, 17 and Bonnie Peters, 18, entered the apartment and, following heavy consumption of alcohol, began a smashing spree that included windows, light fixtures, heating controls, ceilings and doors.

A STOUFFVILLE - A spark from an overheated saw ignited shavings in an overhead disposal pipe in the shoproom at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, Tuesday, prompting Fire Chief Walter Smith to call on brigade volunteers for assistance.

A quantity of marijuana was found dismantled.
