Stouffville man turns a neat furrow with old-fashioned plow

Time was temporarily turned back, Saturday, at the North York match near Keswick, when Fred Timbers of Stouffville, took over the 'reins' and displayed his skill at handling a walking plow. The only 'hitch' in the arrangement was the fact that no horses were immediately available and a tractor had to be pressed into service.

SINCLAIR STEVENS PUTS PEOPLE FIRST

Sinclair Stevens likes people, likes working with people, likes to become involved with people. Particularly people from the York-Simcoe area. . . because, he is from the York-Simcoe area. Sinclair Stevens was raised on a farm near Kleinberg, has a law office in Newmarket and lives on a farm near Aurora. He knows York-Simcoe, knows the people of York-Simcoe and is well aware of the problems and interests of York-Simcoe. Equally important, Sinclair Stevens is the kind of man who gets things done. . . on the airport issue, on permanent commuter train service, on welfare waste, on the preservation of the family farm unit, on realistic youth programs and on fairer treatment from the Federal Authorities for our area. He puts the people of York-Simcoe first. . . you should too! Elect Sinclair Stevens as your full-time Member of Parliament.
