Pinned under auto

Mrs. Dorothy Plaxton, wife of Richmond Hill councillor Donald Plaxton, suffered a broken collar bone, cuts and abrasions in a freak accident on Yonge Street.

According to police, Mrs. Plaxton had stopped her station wagon, and had gone around to the rear, to take something out. When the vehicle began to roll back, she called to a passenger, to put her foot on the brake. It is alleged, however, that the lady stepped on the accelerator instead, sending the car over the victim. Firemen were called to assist police in removing the councillor's wife from under the auto.
