Hundred dollar bid buys antique bell

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE - An old fashioned bell, that had summoned several generations to dinner, sold for $100, at the Hart Sellers' farm auction, Saturday. Several from the Buttonville community attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber and Mr. Milton Sherman.

Receipts from the smorgasbord, Oct. 25, held in Brown's Corners United Church, amounted to $900.

The Harold Steffler family returned to the neighborhood to attend graduation ceremonies at Thornlea Secondary School, Nov. 3. Their son John was among the graduates. He is attending the School of Music at McGill University, Montreal. Andy Grant is out and about following surgery. When Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig were in England they had a delightful visit with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carr and daughters. The Carrs' left this area almost two years ago to return home, but they are finding life in Britain difficult. If plans work out, they may soon be back. Congratulations to John Stephenson, a graduate at Thornlea Secondary School Commencement exercises, Friday. John is in General Arts at the University of Toronto.
