

Behind a house - a show place

STOUFFVILLE Ken Roberts hopes his new business premises will open this week. There is one major problem - a 2-storey house has to be lifted from his front parking lot, trundled around the corner of Main St. and 10th Line North and deposited on Boyer Street. Professionals will remove the house and Mr. Roberts will concentrate on moving trailers, snowmobiles and equipment into his new sales and service centre. Ken Roberts, a west-end resident, started his business - Roberts Trailer Sales - next to East End Gulf Station, in 1969. The following year, he expanded his sales interests to include "Arctic Cat" snowmobiles. "I wanted to buy a machine myself, so I figured the cheapest way was to take on the agency," he joked. His new building comprises two apartments on the second floor, with a ground level showroom for trailers, snowmobiles and accessories. There is a service area for maintenance, repair work and Mr. Roberts anticipates employing a 4-man staff.

Century-old farm residence destroyed by fire

A century-old house on the former Charles Dennis farm, Bloomington Road, west of Hwy. 48, was destroyed by fire, Sunday afternoon. The blaze, of unknown origin, could be seen for several miles. The property was sold recently, and there was no one living in the place at the time.

Mrs. Adelaide Daniels 'Inside every fat person - there's a thin one wanting to get out'

STOUFFVILLE A new weightwatchers class was officially opened Tuesday, in the Stouffville United Church. Group classes are held every Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. says Mrs. Adelaide Daniels, founder and director of Weight Watchers of Ontario Limited. Mrs. Daniels, a well known crusader against overweight and outspoken advocate of eating sensibly, has established over 250 classes throughout Ontario to help thousands of overweight people tackle their problem. She always recommends a medical checkup first. Mrs. Daniels, who lost over a hundred pounds herself seven years ago, says, "Inside every fat person there's a thin one waiting to get out."
