pass to give Stouffville the lead and the only goal of the period.

The starting five minutes of the second frame were disastrous as Ajax kicked off with a 5-4 win. The charge was started and led by Rob Lawson, but it was too little too late.

In the first period, Dave Huxtable put away an Eric Lehman

Lawson came out in the third looking like he would win the game himself. Digging the puck out of his own end, Lawson sent Brian Murphy and Ken Smith away on a dandy play that saw Smith put it away. Rob then took the play down himself and scored on the solo effort.
