

Late Andrew Morden

A thoughtful neighbor

By Mrs. Betty Pegg GREENWOOD - Our village was saddened, Nov. 29, over the sudden passing of Andrew James Morden, following a lengthy illness.

Andy will be remembered as a thoughtful neighbor and friend to all who knew him.

Born in 1904 in Greenville, he worked as a miller in several communities before buying the mill in Greenwood, where he has been a resident for 27 years.

His wife, Ellen Vanessa Kindree passed away, 1960, and his daughter - Mrs.

Joanne Mitchell in 1954.

He is survived by son Douglas; grandchildren Larry and Mary - Lou; brothers Palmer of Hamilton and Jonathon of McKeller.

Service was held from McEachnie Funeral Home, Pickering, Dec. 2.

Pallbearers were Robert McKeown, Ed Connors, Ralph Robertson, Bill Brown, Gerald Fisher and Les Wilson.

Interment was at Mount Lawn Cemetery, Oshawa.

Mrs. J. Soden celebrated her birthday recently at a party given by her nephew, Ernie Carruthers, his wife and Ruth Ann - at their home near Claremont. Mrs. Don Clarke was also a guest.

Unit No. 1 of United Church Women, will meet, Dec. 7, at the Church. Mrs. J. Brooks will conduct the Christmas program.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Sid Pugh and family in the recent passing of Mr. Pugh's mother.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. I. McLean and Beatrice were Mr. and Mrs. D. McLean of Detroit; David Kimberley of Beamsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb entertained their granddaughter on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pegg, Diana, John and Steven of Windsor, visited Joe's parents on the weekend.

Twelve year old wins Scotia Bank trophy

Twelve year old Sam Testa, R. R. 2, Stouffville, was presented with the Scotia Bank Trophy, Nov. 30, at the annual plowman's Awards Banquet in Victoria Square Community Hall. Mr. Paul J. Roney, Stouffville Branch Manager, made the presentation. —Jim Thomas.

Variety show Saturday

By Mrs. Rene Rennie. CLAREMONT - The 11th Annual Christmas Variety Show will be held Dec. 9, at 1:30 p.m., in Claremont Community Hall. Al Ward, principal of Claremont School, will be the M.C., and Santa will arrive at the end of the program to distribute gifts to the children.

The Sunday School and congregation Christmas party will be held in the Baptist Church, Dec. 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Claremont United Church Sunday School's White Gift service is Dec. 10, at 11:15 a.m.

The Women's Institute's Christmas program will be held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Fryer, Dec. 13, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Fred Small will display her collection of shells.

The Legion Ladies Auxiliary will hold their Christmas party, Dec. 14. The Legion Christmas Party for members' children is Dec. 17, at 12:15 p.m.

At a successful auction sale, held by Claremont Lionettes, Dwight Goden won the lucky door prize.

Shirley Pilkey and Agnes Ferguson were auctioneers. The annual meeting of Claremont Area Recreation Association, was poorly attended. Fortunately for the community the present committee agreed to continue, with a few changes. Officers for 1973 are: President - Norrine Hill; Past President George Woolhead; 1st Vice - Pres. - Jack Dunstall; 2nd Vice Pres. - Eileen Ball; Secretary - Sandra Redshaw; Treasurer Helen Tower Recreation Director Rodger Boyle, Assistant - Betty Hopkins. The 2nd Wednesday of every month, meetings will be open to the public. Your support is needed. Don't let the responsibility for community recreation fall on this one small committee. The Community Hall is being renovated right now, and some help is needed there.

Pickering Township employees held a dinner and dance at Claremont Legion, Saturday. Last week's Bowling Club euchre winners were: Georgina Forsyth, Aldine Evans.
