

Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Boettger

A surprise reception

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Boettger, were honored Nov. 29, at a surprise reception in the Fellowship Hall, on the occasion of their Silver Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Boettger were married in 1947, at Zuru Church in Nigeria, Africa. Rev. Earl Honsberger (who served as the bride's father), Mrs. Honsberger and Miss Annie Yeo, guests at the wedding, were present, along with Miss Ruby Wilson, a co-worker in Nigeria. The happy couple received many lovely gifts. Mrs. George Lehman, mother of Mrs. Boettger, her sisters and their husbands, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Lehman, were also in attendance. Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Chester Pattenden and family in the passing of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Pattenden were residents of Gormley for many years before moving to Stouffville. Mr. and Mrs. David Collins have moved from the Mushroom Farm to Lindsay. Wayne Ireland has moved into the residence, recently vacated by the Collins' family. Another property has changed hands. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eade have sold their home in New Gormley. Rev. Alvin Winger underwent surgery in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, Nov. 28. In spite of his 89 years, he is coming along well.

Mrs. Fred Lubeck of Stayner spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Alvin Winger. Mr. and Mrs. Lea are progressing well with the lovely new house they are building on Elm St. Miss Brenda Ash is home from Toronto General Hospital. She underwent a ton-silectomy there recently. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Coneybeare of Listowel were guests Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Metro Sudeyko. Mary and Adeline Reaman and Alma Heise have returned from a delightful trip to Israel. Mrs. Allan Pope of Glen Orchard spent several days with Mrs. Norman Brown. Mr. Harold Nigh of Port Colborne was the guest speaker Sunday morning at Heise Hill church and also showed pictures at the Sunday evening service. He and his wife work with the Menomite Central Relief Committee and recently spent eight months in Greece and other neighboring countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Searle of Oakville visited their grandfather, Mr. Wm. Banford and their great aunt, Mrs. Blanch Read.

The average household consists of a husband who makes the money, and a wife and kids who make it necessary.
