'Adopt' 7-year-old Korean boy

STOUFFVILLE
The Stouffville Hi-C has 'adopted' a 7 year old Korean boy, Byung Ok Lee of Seoul.

The 'adoption', a program under the direction of the Foster Parents Plan of Canada, assures support in the amount of $17 a month.

Byung Ok Lee, a Primary School pupil, lives with his mother and three brothers, ages 9, 11 and 13.

The sponsorship, a Club project, is entered under the name of Marjorie Keeler, Park Drive North, Stouffville.

The Foster Parents Plan is currently working in ten countries, with more than 50,000 children receiving aid. More information on this work is available by writing Foster Parents Plan of Canada, 153 St. Clair Avenue West, Toronto, 7.

Christmas Banquet
The senior citizens of Ballantrae and community were honored at a banquet, Dec. 8, in the Whitchurch Centennial Centre. The Master of Ceremonies was councillor Herb Simpson. Guests present included Mayor Ken Laushway and Mrs. Laushway; Mayor-elect Gordon Ratcliff and Mrs. Ratcliff; councillor-elect Jim Wong; Rev. and Mrs. Inglis and Mrs. Simpson. The organizers were pleased with the response and hope to continue the event as an annual affair.

85 on Friday
Congratulations are extended to Mr. Les Rowe, Hawthorne Avenue, on the occasion of his 85th birthday, this Friday.

To Udora
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McKay and family, formerly of Stouffville, have purchased a home near Udora, and are now residing there.

Friendship Club
The Friendship Club will meet Thursday (tonight) in the Stouffville Legion Hall, at 6:30 p.m. All senior citizens in the area are welcome. Those requiring transportation are asked to call 640-2443.

Beta Sigma Phi
The Eta Lambda Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi, held its 7th meeting, at the home of Mrs. Lenore Cronin. With the completion of business, an evening of music was presented by Pam Follett, Joyce Caudle and Dianne Darling. Refreshments were served by Jean Whale and Daisy Taylor.

90th birthday
Congratulations go out this week to Mrs. Orville Burton, Russell Street, Stouffville, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, Dec. 19.

Asst. Postmaster
Stouffville has a new Assistant Postmaster. He's Mr. George Collins, 25, of Willowdale, and formerly on the Post Office staff at Willowdale. Mr. Collins assumed his position here, Dec. 4.

Improving
Bob Snowball has been released from hospital and making a good recovery following a recent heart attack. His period of convalescence will extend over 8 weeks.

A 'Big Brother'
Bruce Crawford, Chief of the York Regional Police Department, has taken out membership in the Big Brother Movement. The program is being re-organized on a regional basis, Mr. Crawford said. A press conference, to explain the plan in full, was held Dec. 20, at the Black Hawk Motor Hotel, Yonge Street, south of Aurora.

50th Anniversary
On the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Thomas, Village Squire Apartments, Markham, will be 'at home' to their friends and relatives, Wednesday, Dec. 27, from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. The reception will be held in the hall of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Main Street North.

'Best Ever'
"The best ever" was the way President Tom Shea described the pre-Christmas gathering hosted by Shea Real Estate Limited, at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club, Dec. 13. Personnel from the firm's 20 branch offices as far distant as MacTier, Kingston and Barrie attended, numbering 160. Music for the occasion was provided by Wally Koster and his Orchestra.

Mr. Bob Hammond, O'Brien Avenue, is making a good recovery, following a recent heart attack. He is hopeful of returning to regular teaching duties following the Christmas holiday period. He's a member on the staff of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

Christian Church ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodman, following their marriage, Oct. 7, 1972, in the Stouffville Christian Memorial Church. The bride is the former Catherine Vanzant, daughter of Mrs. Vanzant and the late Charles Vanzant of Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Goodman of Willowdale. Rev. Douglas Davis and Rev. David Parker performed the ceremony. Attending the bride were, Shirley Wood, matron of honor; Miss Catherine Bacon, bridesmaid; and Janice Baker, a niece of the bride, a junior bridesmaid. The best man was Gordon Goodman, and the ushers, Robert Goodman and Arthur Bodziak. Following a honeymoon in the New England States the happy couple are now residing in Toronto.

Wrong number

A call on the Stouffville fire phone aroused brigade members at 4 a.m. Monday morning. The 'alarmist' proved false, however, since the caller was only a reporter on the staff of the Toronto Star, requesting information on the blaze at Sleepy Hollow.

Admired by many. The beautiful color portrait in the window of Cadieux's Studio, Main Street is of

Steven and Stephanie Barclay, children of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barclay, Loretta Crescent

Marilyn Watson University English award

MARKHAM
Marilyn Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Watson, R. R. 2, Markham, has been honored by the University of Guelph. Marilyn received the John Sutherland Sr. Memorial Prize in English.

The award, in the amount of $50, goes to the student with the highest standing in English during the first four semesters.

The presentation was made by Professor T. K. Warley, Chairman of the Dept. of Agricultural Economics and Extension Education.

Our man 'Ed'
Ed Grimshaw, Stouffville's 'Man About Hockey', is making final arrangements for the Bantam team's trip to Switzerland, next month. However, the O.M.H.A., realizing his capabilities, has assigned him the task of assisting in the organizing of the Swiss club's return trip to Canada in 1974. Ed has been appointed to the Board of Directors for this purpose.

To England
Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Nolan, Duchess Street, left Saturday by air for England, where they will enjoy a family Christmas gathering with son, John and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rau.

Married 50 years
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Harvie, R. R. 1, Goodwood, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, to be celebrated, Dec. 24, from 2 to 5 p.m. Mr. Harvie is a councillor-elect, Twp. of Uxbridge.

Inspiring service
An inspiring Watchnight Service is planned for Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church, Dec. 31, beginning at 9 p.m. The annual Hymn Sing will feature the famous Freeman Quartet, The Harmonaires, The Sellwoods and The Happy Cousins.

Out of hospital
Whitchurch Stouffville councillor Betty vanNostrand is home after several days in hospital.

Michele Waite, Russell Street, hosted a pre-Christmas party for several of her school friends, Friday

Guest speaker
Norman Lehman, well known in Stouffville and area, is the guest speaker at the 7 p.m. evening service in the Stouffville Pentecostal Church. The location is the Altona Community Centre.
