

Managua earthquake

Gormley family's fate unknown

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY - The devastating Managua earthquake, that has killed thousands and rendered thousands more homeless, is causing Mrs. Marion Kelly of Gormley much anxiety and concern. Her son, Rev. Walter Kelly, his wife and daughters, were residing in that city. At the time of writing, (Sunday), no word had been received from the area where they were living.

Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Ross Chapman and family in the passing of Mr. Chapman in Toronto General Hospital, following a heart attack. The Chapman's are well known in the area since they lived for many years at Bethesda. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon in Queensville United Church.

Mrs. Eldon Brillinger was rushed to York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, for treatment of a bleeding ulcer.

Mr. Lachlan Munroe is home from St. John's University in Newfoundland to spend the holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Munroe.

Shirley Doner of Regina, Saskatchewan, after a series of flight delays, arrived home to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doner.

Miss Lisa Luoranen of Thunder Bay is spending the holiday season with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson McTavish.

Rev. Alvin Winger spent a few days in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, last week, under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacNiven and baby of Welland spent Christmas weekend with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Andrew MacNiven.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mackey spent Christmas with her parents at Lake

A 'Rockette' at S.D.S.S.

Thirteen girls, called Rita's Rockers, entertained on stage at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School's annual Variety Show, Dec. 21. One member of the chorus line was Patty Bedore, Loretta Crescent. —Jim Thomas.

Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Elliott and family were Christmas guests of Rev. and Mrs. Willis Hunking, Kitchener.

Rev. and Mrs. Andrew MacNiven and family were guests on Christmas Day of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bossert of Fenwick. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cudahy and daughter from British Columbia spent a few days at the Eldon Brillinger home.

Plan to attend the Watchnight service at Heise Hill Church on Sunday at 9 p.m. This service will feature the Freeman Quartette, the Harmonaires, the Selwood Quartette and the Happy Cousins.

Mrs. George Lehman of Toronto spent Christmas with her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Boettger.

A Christmas 'gift' beyond compare

By Jean Leaf BUTTONVILLE
For Charles and Peggy Hooper, this Christmas took on a very real meaning. For their's was the greatest 'gift' of all, a beautiful baby girl.

Don and Velma Otis, Mather and Rebecca of Pueblo, Colorado, enjoyed Christmas with Velma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller. Christmas Day was enjoyed with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay and families, Markham.

Mrs. Sidney English left Sunday, to spend the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gray and family in Toronto. Mrs. Fred Leaf and Lynda visited with the Harding family in Leaside.

Jack and Mary Rodick were guests at the Andy Grant home. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grant and family of Stouffville, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson of Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gough had a busy Christmas. Guests included, Ted and Ellen Gough of Haliburton, and Mr.

and Mrs. Ray Grant and family, Stouffville. On Dec. 26, Ted and Ellen, with their family, left on a Florida holiday.

The Ross Hord family, Judy and Marshall Benson, Jim and Sharon Hord, spent the holiday with David and his family at Foxbrough.

Joy and Reg Crawford hosted his family from Bancroft, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fuller.

Fraser Craig is home for the holidays. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig on Christmas Day also included Janet, John and his family, Miss Lena Fraser, Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Lauder Hamilton of Cogan.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carr and family are returning to the community from England. Allan begins work at De Havilland Jan. 2. Brenda and the children will follow.

The annual Christmas Concert was held at Brown's Corners Church, Dec. 20. The master of ceremonies was Harvey Brown.

The Primary class, led by Kathy Stewart and Sharon Buchanan introduced the program with the Christmas Story read by Phillip Webster. Diane Brumwell was Mary and Joseph was Sam Newman. Kindergarteners directed by Mrs. Carol Newman and Cheryl Tennyson sang "Jingle Bells; the Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Marguerite Jones sang several numbers. Gregory Parton recited "What Can I Give Him?" There were carols by the junior primary class and Kathy Stewart accompanist. Don Reesor's class presented "The Christmas Tree. Santa distributed presents among the children to conclude the concert.
