Author reading from The Volunteer tonight

Allan Amos is reading from his novel The Volunteer at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library tonight.

Part of the novel is set partly in a prison which houses inmates who were either denied bail during their hearings or are awaiting sentencing.

The main character, Sydney Templeton, eventually gets permission to visit three of the inmates regularly.

He visits the jail in the first place after his life becomes too routine and he wants to get it out of the doldrums.

Mr. Amos is an information technology consultant by day and a fiction writer by night.

He grew up in Jamaica and lives in Toronto.

The reading is from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and admission is free.

The library is in the Lebovic Leisure Centre at 30 Burkholder St. in Stouffville.

Call 905-642-7323 for more information.
