High School kicks off theatre year

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

High School Musical has brought teenage life to life so successfully and melodiously, the production is playing all over the world, including Stouffville this weekend.

The York Durham Academy for Performing Arts presents High School Musical as its first production this season. It plays at Orchard Park Public School tonight to Saturday.

Stouffville resident, Geordie Hill, 16, portrays basketball star Troy. The shy, smart Gabriella is played by 16-year-old Jessica McLeish.

Both discover their love for singing in a karaoke contest at a party and decide to audition for their high school's musical. They have to compete with Sharpay, played by Shawna Sanders, and Ryan, portrayed by A. J. deBoer, who is in Grade 8. The two characters have a reputation for being the school's top theatrical talents.

Thrown into the mix is Troy's dad, the basketball coach, who disapproves of Troy singing. The coach is played by Dean Mackie, one of the adult actors in the academy production. There are around 50 cast members.

You can see High School Musical Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. and Feb. 2 at both 1 and 7:30 p.m. The school is at 276 Sunset Blvd.

Tickets are $9 for children under eight, $15 for adults and $12 for students and seniors. They are available at the door, by calling 905-640-0823, ext. 3 or e-mailing tickets@ydapa.com

NEW APPOINTMENT

Brian Rennick

The Board of Directors of The Markhaven foundation is pleased to announce the appointment of Brian Rennick to the position of President of the Foundation. Brian comes to this position with over 30 years experience working with a wide variety of not-for-profit organizations. For the past ten years he has been running his own consulting business helping organizations in his words, "tell their story effectively and passionately." Brian graduated from York University with a Masters of Business Administration where he specialized in Voluntary Sector Management.

Brian's strong background in strategic planning, execution and communications will be a real asset to Markhaven. He looks forward to working with staff and the large team of volunteers that works so hard on Markhaven's annual events: the Golf Tournament on Monday May 5th at Angus Glen, Grandma's Run on Saturday September 13th and the Gala on Friday, November 7th.

Brian will be giving focus over the next few months to connecting with key supporters, sponsors, volunteers and committee members. If you would like more information or to arrange to meet Brian, please contact him at:
