

Carnival needs volunteers

The fifth annual Whitchurch-Stouffville Winter Carnival wants volunteers to make the event bigger and better.

Hosted by the Musselman's Lake Residents Association, the Feb. 9 carnival takes place at Cedar Beach Park and on the lake.

Help is needed with overseeing children's activities, face painting and games from 1 to 4 p.m. The night before the carnival, volunteers are sought to help set up.

Students from Stouffville District Secondary School can add to their community service hours by volunteering.

In addition to children's games, the carnival features skating, outdoor music, hay rides, ATV rides and music by the Whitchurch Highlands Public School primary choir.

A Hard Rock Concert on Ice by the band In Perfect Cursive starts at 2:30 p.m. Bass guitarist is Mike Wigmore, a Musselman's Lake resident.

The Ballantrae Scouts are serving refreshments including beaver tails.

E-mail mlra@musselmanslake.ca to volunteer.
All proceeds go to Markham Stouffville Hospital.
