

Family Quarles playing Celtic Night

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

Stouffville's Family Quarles performs at the Midwinter Celtic Night at the Newmarket Theatre Feb. 8.

The show features numerous solo musicians and singers, groups and bands and begins at 7 p.m.

You'll have a chance to hear a wide variety of music including old favourites such as Loch Lomond, Greensleeves and Danny Boy and sing along to Auld Lang Syne.

The York Region Police Pipe Band as well as highland dancers perform at the event.

The Family Quarles consists of Don, who plays piano and sings, wife Jani on percussion and vocals, son Braedon and twin daughters Lauren and Devynn, who play fiddle and piano, step dance and sing.

The musical family has performed at fairs, festivals and corporate events in Ontario and Quebec.

They've played their music to audiences on an Arctic cruise and at the opening of the For the Love of Jo coffee house and Strawberry Festival in Stouffville.

The family's musical influences include Natalie McMaster, Leahy, Barage, Ashley McIsaac and Phil and Debbie Howes.

Female stars to shine at concert

Female musicians are taking centre stage Feb. 23 for the third annual Stars of Stouffville.

This year, the concert focuses on local female singer/songwriters.

Established and up-and-coming artists, including Lenore Elaine, Marie-Lynn Hammond and Bonny Morgan, are performing.

The show is a fundraiser for Stouffville's fledgling radio station, WhiStleRadio, and begins at 8 p.m. Admission is $15.

The concert is at Christ Church Anglican.
