

One-man band, jam liven up weekend

If you want to head out for some entertainment this weekend, think Stouffville.

Several local pubs and restaurants regularly feature musicians as well as open jam nights.

At Crossroads Restaurant, The Bottle Devils perform classic rock/pop tunes as well as today's music Friday at 10 p.m.. The open electric jam hosted by Andrew begins on Sunday from 4:30 p.m.

Stouffville's Mike Burns performs every Thursday and Friday starting at 6:30pm in the Upstairs Lounge

Crossroads is at 6211 Main St.

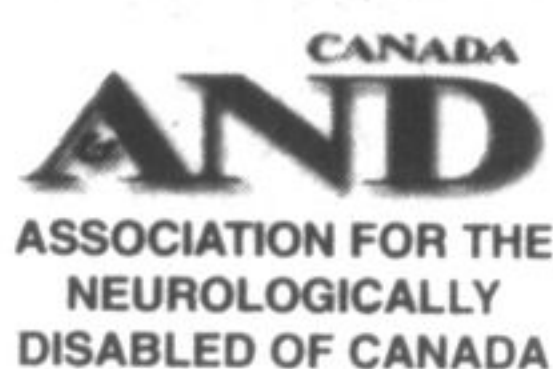

The Earl of Whitchurch, 6204 Main St., features one-man band Frank Perry Friday at 9:30 p.m.

For the Love of Jo coffee house hosts an open jam every Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m. Also, performers from Hype Muzik entertain Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. The coffee house is at 6308 Main St.

There's live entertainment at The Lion of Stouffville every Thursday beginning around 7:30 p.m. The Lion is at 5917 Main St.

FRANK SCARPITTI, MAYOR OF MARKHAM, A PROUD FOUNDING BENEFACTOR OF YORK REGION COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Rosemary Park, chair of the York Region Community Foundation (YRCF), proudly welcomes Mayor Frank Scarpitti as a Founding Benefactor of York Region Community Foundation. Mayor Scarpitti's generous contribution reflects his commitment to ensuring the future vitality of York Region and Markham, where he resides and works.

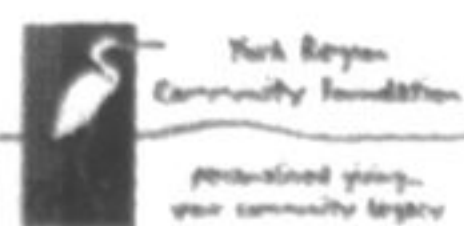

"As all communities in York Region continue to grow, it is important to have an organization like York Region Community Foundation for individuals, families and corporations to financially support all aspects of healthy and sustainable communities," says Mayor Frank Scarpitti

Frank Scarpitti lives in Markham with his wife, Nancy and their three children. He has been a resident of Markham for over 45 years. Frank has been involved in municipal government for over 20 years, being elected Mayor of Markham in 2006. Frank has been an active supporter of many organizations in York Region including the Markham Stouffville Hospital, Markhaven Foundation, Markham YMCA, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, York Region United Way, Centre for Dreams Inc. and the York Region Social Services Network.

York Region Community Foundation (YRCF) is a locally-run public foundation and registered charity that builds and manages endowment funds to support local charities and community priorities. Currently there are 159 community foundations across Canada with close to $3 billion in endowed funds which in turn provided $137 million in grants last year to their local charities.

York Region Community Foundation promotes excellence in philanthropy to enable our communities to flourish.

For more information on the York Region Community Foundation contact Gina Rosen, Executive Director, at 905-940-7899, or email rosen@yrcf.ca.
