Spirit at home Sunday for Game 6 with Otters

There will be a Game 6 tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. at the Stouffville Arena in the Stouffville Spirit-Huntsville Muskoka Otters best-of-seven playoff series.

Stouffville tied up the Provincial Jr. A Hockey League North Conference semifinal at two games each with a 4-1 win in front of 448 fans in Stouffville Thursday.

Game 5 was scheduled for last night in Huntsville.

Trevor O'Neill, who had his shutout ruined with 2:19 to play, starred for the Spirit Thursday, especially in the first period.

Spirit scores were Corey Trivino, James McIntosh, Daniel Spivak and Tyler Gubb.

Lip sync at Vegas evening

Music Mania wants you to lip sync at its Viva Las Vegas Night fundraiser at Christ Church Anglican April 5.

"Pick a catchy, funny, descriptive song," show director Rick Lightfoot said, "and act it out."

Music Mania is Stouffville's annual spring music and entertainment revue.

The evening features Vegas-inspired games of chance, refreshments, musical performances, door prizes and a silent auction. Tickets are $15 and $10 for performers.

Call Mr. Lightfoot at 905-640-4375 to participate.

Sweet time at Bruce's Mill

Maple syrup season is upon us. Spring can't be far behind.

The annual Sugarbush Maple Syrup Festival at Bruce's Mill Conservation Area opens Friday and continues every weekend through April 6, plus the school break, March 10 to 14.

Activities at the Stouffville Road park include guided tours of the sugar bush, crafts, horse-drawn wagon rides and survival skills lessons.
