Not going to Florida? Plenty of March break action in Whitchurch-Stouffville
From Blades of Glory to the sugarbush

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

There are plenty of March Break choices out there for local children — without having to leave Whitchurch-Stouffville.

• In town, the Latcham Gallery offers 10 different art workshops from March 10 to 14. Morning workshops run from 10 a.m. to noon; in the afternoon, they take place from 1 to 3 p.m.

Choose from cool and crazy portraits, animal puppets, creature cartooning, landscape and cityscape sketching and much more.

These creative workshops are for children five and older.

Each workshop costs $12 per child. All workshops take place in the gallery's Art Bunker in the basement of the Silver Jubilee Club at 6297 Main St. in Stouffville. Call 905-640-8954.

• Ancient Civilizations is the theme for the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library's March break program.

It runs from March 7 to 14 and includes Music by Jake, a performance by Motus O, Mad Science, Mike Harding Puppetry and the movie Blades of Glory.

Because of a Stouffville Lions Club donation, all programs are free, but a ticket is required for each performance. Tickets are all gone for some events. Call 905-642-7323 for more.

Movie Day at the library on March 7

from 1:30 to 3 p.m. features The Seeker: The Dark is Rising. This movie is rated PG. Free admission. Call 905-642-7323.

• The 40th anniversary Sugarbush Maple Syrup Festival starts March 7 at Bruce's Mill, on Stouffville Road, east of Warden Avenue. The festival continues till April 6. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Enjoy maple syrup demonstrations and sampling, pancakes and syrup, pony rides and crafts. Call 416-667-6299 for more information.

• At the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum in Vandenbrink, experience life the way it was lived 100 or more years ago. The museum's March break kick-off runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. March 7.

Youngsters eight to 12 have a chance to do pioneer crafts, heritage cooking in the Brown House kitchen and try their hand at traditional games. The museum is on Woodbine Avenue, south of Aurora Road.

Cost is $40 per child ($32 for museum members) and includes all materials and snacks.

Pre-registration is required (call 905-727-8954) and participants must bring their own nut-free lunch.

• The Department of Leisure Services is offering Willowgrove March Break camp for the week for children six to 12, with activities such as snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, maple syrup lessons, music and more. Cost is $230 for the week, and before and after care is also available. Register at the Lebovic Leisure Centre or call 905-642-7529.

A March break hockey camp for children six to 12 led by qualified instructors, offers on-ice power skating and hockey skills as well as movies, games and indoor fun. Cost is $250 for full days; $150 for half-days.

The junior power skating camp for children six to nine and 10 to 15 runs during March break from 5 to 5:50 p.m. Practice stops and starts, cross-overs, skating drills with pucks, and more. Cost is $70 per child.

For the camps, call the Leisure Services Department at 905-642-7529.
