

Final all-star game for Jim

Stouffville resident Jim Veltman is among three players from the Toronto Rock chosen to participate in the National Lacrosse League's annual all-star game in Edmonton March 16.

Veltman, 41, along with goalie Bob Watson and defender Peter Lough will play for the East team.

A 15-year veteran, Veltman missed two games due to an injury this year, but has three goals and three assists in five games. He is retiring after this season.

In addition, the league's all-time leader in gathering loose balls has 43 this season.

Judo kids floor opposition in Guelph

Students representing the Sheffield Judo Club fielded three first-place efforts along with three second-place finishes, one third and one fourth at the annual Kohbukan Tournament in Guelph.

Placing first were: Jaya Creavalle in the juvenile girls +63 kilogram division; Jordan Creavalle IJF junior boys -81 kg. and Jaya Creavalle IJF junior girls +78 kg.

Second-place results were recorded by: Jordan Creavalle senior men -73 kg.; Kyle Chee-A-Tow senior men -66 kg. and Gary Vosburg masters men middleweight.

Chris Vosburg finished third in the juvenile boys -73 kg.

Davis Vosburg was fourth in the juvenile boys -60 kg.

Vincec motors to podium

Mike Vincec made two trips to the victory podium at the Homestead-Miami Speedway track near Sebring, Fla. with his Sunoco Team Ultra 94 racing team in the Skip Barber Series.

Competing in two races, the 16-year-old Stouffville native, who competes in the South Region, raced in a Western Region event and placed second.

Also competing in his South Region race, he placed sixth.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Sunday, Vincec placed third in a South Region race.

By virtue of his sixth- and third-place efforts, Vincec holds down second place in the South Region overall championship series standings.

The next race in the Skip Barber series is scheduled to take place March 8-9 at Las Vegas Motor Speedway in Las Vegas, Nev.

Silverthorn makes waves for Ducks in Guelph meet

Jake Silverthorn led an 11-member contingent from the Stouffville Swim Club at the recent BDO Dunwoody Invitational in Guelph by claiming six medals and posting 100-per-cent best times in each of his events.

The 12-year-old Stouffville competitor swam off with gold in the male 11-12 200-metre backstroke and freestyle, silver in the 100m free, 200m individual medley and 100m backstroke and bronze in 50m freestyle.

Silverthorn also qualified for two more provincial standards, bringing his total to six.

Making her debut with the Ducks, Gloria Lai, 14, made finals in every race and came away with one silver in the female 13-14 100m freestyle, one bronze in the 50m freestyle, one sixth and one seventh.

Kevin Boehnke, 16, achieved three bronze medals in the male 15 and over 100m ad 200m breaststroke and 200m individual medley, one fifth and two sixths, while getting two personal bests.

Jaime Silverthorn, 10, achieved three best times and got one bronze in the female 10 and under 50m freestyle, one fourth, one fifth and two sevenths.

Dylan Cook, 12, swam all personal bests and was awarded one sixth, three sevenths and one eighth.

Bethany Philpott, 17, received three sixths, one seventh and two eighths. Alexandria Krawczuk, 12, swam off with five best times and placed sixth in her 50m freestyle.

Alison Romano, 13, attained five best times and made finals in the 200m individual medley.

Krista Bradshaw, 13, swam off with five personal bests, while Caleigh Stallybrass, 13, and Cassandra Roberts, 12, each had four.
