

Firefighter has big goal for cancer-fighting ride

Stouffville resident Axel Gold has set an ambitious personal fundraising goal of $10,000 before he cycles more than 200 km in the two-day Ride to Conquer Cancer.

The minimum amount cyclists have to raise to join the ride is $2,500.

The Toronto firefighter will join thousands of other cyclists riding from Toronto to Niagara Falls, with a night of camping in Hamilton, from June 20 to 22 to benefit Princess Margaret Hospital in Toronto.

This is the inaugural Ride to Conquer Cancer event in Toronto.

The hospital is one of the top five cancer research hospitals in the world.

According to statistics, 39 per cent of Canadian women and 44 per cent of Canadian men will develop cancer in their lifetime.

For more information on the event, visit conquercancer.ca

To donate on-line, visit conquercancer.ca and go to participant ID number 521942-3 or call 416-815-7433.

Relay For Life youths hit the alleys

Fittingly, they called themselves The Next Generation.

The team of 12 Stouffville youths is attempting to raise at least $1,200 to enter the second annual Relay For Life in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

The Candian Cancer Society fundraiser will be held June 15 at Willowgrove on McCowan Road.

The team is hosting a fundraiser of its own at the Stouffville Bowling Centre on April 11 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $10.

► Call 905-642-5305 for more. Pledge the team at cancer.ca/relay

A team of adults, Stars Of Hope, is baking treats for the event.

The teenagers have raised just under $400 by going door to door in Stouffville selling beaded bracelets they made themselves.
