

INSPIRATION AT HAND

STAFF PHOTO/SJOERD WITTEVEEN

Alisha Bayer, 7, was inspired by Kristiina Lahde's work called Paper Cut (in background) to make her own at the Latcham Gallery's Free Family Art Day. The next family day at the Stouffville gallery is April 26, with inspiration from the gallery's annual juried exhibition. Check out www.latchamgallery.ca for more information.
