

Service for George Wilson today

George Wilson was well known in Stouffville for his family garage and work as a volunteer firefighter.

Mr. Wilson died Friday at Markham Stouffville Hospital. He was 74.

Funeral services for Mr. Wilson are at Stouffville United Church today at 1 p.m.

A Whitchurch-Stouffville firefighter for 35 years, he also ran the service station his father founded at Main Street and Ninth Line.

OBITUARIES

Heavy towing was a specialty at Wilson Esso, now Olco.

He is survived by his wife, Flossie, children Terry, Beth and Cindy, grandchildren Brayden, Casey, Christie and Ashley and a brother, Ron.

Donations may be made to the Alzheimer Society.

Large crowd mourns death of second Busato brother

For the second time in five months, a member of Stouffville's popular Busato family has died.

Frank Busato died last Thursday after a lengthy illness. He was 60.

A large crowd attended a memorial service Monday at EastRidge church.

He was remembered for his kindness and generosity.

Frank's brother, Jim, died Dec. 2.

The family owns L & M Gardens Ltd. on the Tenth Line in southern Stouffville.

He is survived by his wife Dianne, a sister, Helen Frenette, and his brother, Bob.

Frank was respected in the greenhouse flower industry for his knowledge and expertise in advancing watering systems through the use of chemicals and technology. He displayed a lifelong devotion to the tender care of plants.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation or any other local charity.
