

SUN-TRIBUNE PEOPLE

Hey, Leafs,
it's called a parade!

The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville honoured four Stouffville Clipper teams with a parade through downtown Stouffville Sunday. The Bantams, minor peewees and juveniles won Ontario minor titles, while the tykes won the York Simcoe final.

Photography by Susie Kockerscheidt

The juvenile Clippers party it up along the Main Street parade route with their OMHA trophy, hoisted by Chris Normandeau.

Whitchurch-Stouffville News Digest

Visit yorkregion.com for more on these and other stories

Gone fishing, Stouffville?

Trout fishing season opens today in this area.

It could be a bumper year, thanks to our long and white winter in York Region.

See story on page 7, for more information.

Museum has activities for P.A. day students

It's almost May Day for the P. A. day at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum May 2.

Children from eight to 12 can step back into the past and find out what life was like then.

At the workshop, which runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., youngsters can participate in a variety of old-time crafts, heritage cooking and traditional spring and summer games.

Pre-registration is required. The workshop costs $40 per child for non-members and $32 for museum members.

Call 905-727-8954 or 1-888-290-0337.

Art in Lemonville show from weekly sessions

The Lemonville Group of Artists present hundreds of colourful paintings in their annual spring show May 3 and 4.

Most are local artists who meet weekly to paint and attend workshops at the Lemonville Community Centre.

The show is from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Lemonville Community Centre is at 13453 McCowan Rd., south of Bloomington Road.

The building is wheelchair accessible. Admission and parking are free.

Call 905-640-3965.

SOUND OFF

Have something to say about these or other stories?

E-mail us at jmason@yrmg.com

The minor peewee Clippers received their medals and OMHA trophy before heading out on the streets of Stouffville.

Mother's Day is Sunday, May 11 - Give the gift of healthy, beautiful skin

MediSpa Clinic on Main offers advanced skin care including photofacial, laser hair removal, microdermabrasion and full aesthetics

Give the gift of pampered personalized service - call or drop by for a MediSpa Gift Certificate

Isolaz™ acne treatment • IPL • Laser Hair Removal • Chemical Peels • Manicure / Pedicure

MediSpa Clinic on Main 6038 Main Street Stouffville 905.640.0092 www.medispaclicnic.com