Lemonville Group of Artists

15TH ANNUAL
SHOW & SALE
May 3rd & May 4th, 2008

Mark your calendar for the 15th Annual Lemonville Art Show and Sale

Now in its 15th year, The Lemonville Group of Artists is gearing up for its Show and Sale, held each spring at The Lemonville Community Centre in Stouffville. May 3rd and 4th, from 10 am to 5 pm, art lovers of all ages can enjoy the talents of these artists, who will have on display their one-of-a-kind original art. Admission is free, with ample parking available and The Centre is wheelchair accessible.

Visitors to this year's exhibition can see works, including acrylics, mixed media, Sumi-e (Japanese ink paintings), watercolours and wood block prints. The Boutique Corner features small-scale pieces and greeting cards. A wide variety of artistic styles, from abstract to realism, will appeal to all personal tastes and preferences.

The Lemonville Community Centre is a beautiful venue for an art show and is home to The Lemonville Group of Artists. The building was originally an old school, built in 1922, and has picturesque views of the Oak Ridges Moraine. The Community Centre has a lovely country atmosphere, where people can browse and feel right at home.

The Lemonville Group of Artists is well known in the Whitchurch Stouffville area, and has a large fan base, including art lovers that travel from far and wide each year. The members meet once a week to share their passion for art and to encourage one another. They frequently have guest instructors and also receive instruction from members of their own group.

Over the years, visitors to the Lemonville Art Show and Sale have enjoyed other tourist spots and venues in Stouffville. Show organizers are encouraging people, in addition to visiting the art show, to stop at other places in the community. People can visit two local wineries - Applewood Farm Winery and Willow Springs Winery - dine, and shop in at Stouffville stores, including local favourite, Charlinda's Chocolates. Visitors are encouraged to make a day of it, exploring the Stouffville area and all it has to offer. The art show is very good for local tourism and the artists, in turn, are very grateful to the Town of Whitchurch Stouffville for its continued support.

Members of the group are Bette Archer, Diana Bullcock, Sandra Cole Burke, Eileen Christensen, Morven Crothers, Lori Dale, Isobel Emmerson, Anita Emonson, Elizabeth Gillan, Autumn Graves, Joan Humphrey, Suzanne Larkin, Lyn Liddle, Helen McKenna, Shelley Ophelders, Diane Passafiume, June Probert, Lillian Richardson, Lynn Westaway, Irene Wolff and Rosemarie Wright.

The Lemonville Community Centre is located at 13453 McCowan Road (east side of McCowan, 1/2 km south of Bloomington Rd.) in Stouffville.

To see examples of the work of these artists please visit <http://LemonvilleGroupofArtists.googlepages.com> or for more information LGInfo@gmail.com or 905-640-3965.
