SAHL crowns champs, MVPs

SPORTS BRIEFS

The Stouffville Amateur Hockey League concluded its regular season last Saturday at the Stouffville Arena.

Boyd's Sports won the women's A championship title with a 3-1 decision against Rosswill Pools.

In the men's open division, KenDon Contracting doubled the count on Pendesign 4-2.

In the men's 35 and over division, No Frills edged Final Touch 4-2.

BMO Nesbitt claimed the senior division title over Steeplejacks 4-2.

This year's most valuable players in each division were: Women's, Lisa Cousins Memorial Award, Caitlin Tuckey; Seniors, Ambrose Pullen Award, Ron Martyn; Over 35, Chris Burkholder and Open, Scott McKinley.

McKinley is a former Stouffville Clipper who went to play for the University of Toronto.

Former Spartan coach hosts summer sport camps

Jim Fletcher, long-time former Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans volleyball and basketball coach, wants to pass on his knowledge of the two sports to youngsters who wish to improve their skills this summer.

Fletcher will do so at the new Stouffville District Secondary School through his Fletch's Fundamental Volleyball and Basketball Summer Camps.

The camp will be comprised of four sessions with the first running from July 7-11 for youngsters between seven to 14 in co-ed basketball and volleyball from 9 a.m. until noon.

The second session will take place July 14-18 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. for boys 10 to 14 in basketball.

From July 21-25, youngsters seven to 14 can take up co-ed basketball and volleyball from 9 a.m. until noon.

The fourth session, July 28 to Aug. 1, is for youngsters seven to 14 who wish to play co-ed basketball and volleyball from 9 a.m. until 2:30 p.m.

The school is on Weldon Road, south of Sobey's.

For further information, call Fletcher at 905-985-3489 or e-mail fletchy@sympatico.ca

Registration forms can also be picked up at Boyd's Source For Sports.

Meteor girls bronzed in Guelph tourney

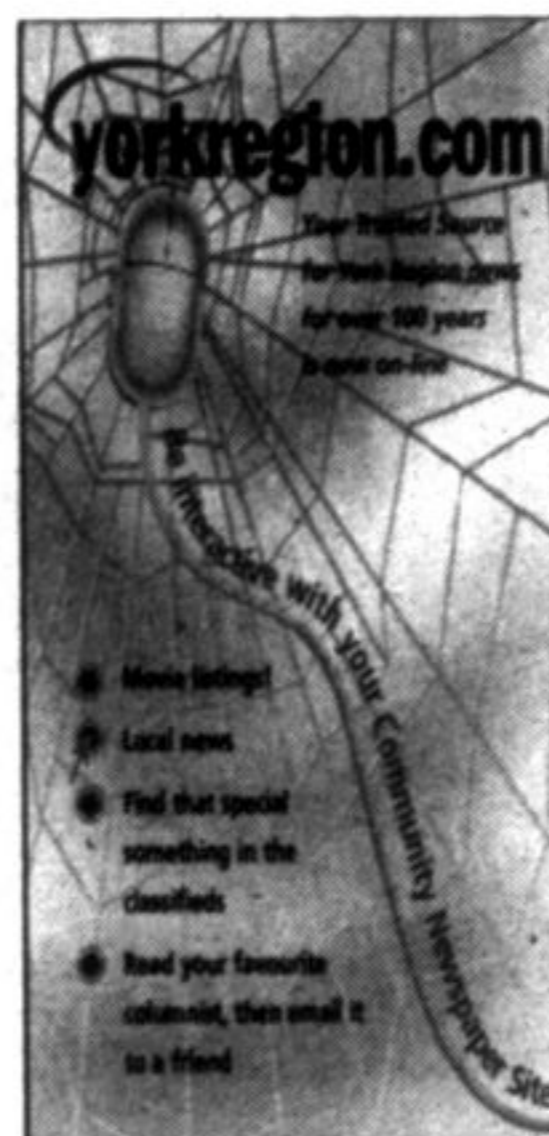

The Markham Unionville Minor Basketball Association Meteors midgets girls rep team ended their season Sunday with a bronze medal and a 19-7 record.

The Meteors won the third-place game of the Guelph CYO All-Stars tournament, 57-25 over the Cambridge Centaurs.

The victory followed a pair of heartbreaking losses at the tourney. In Sunday's semi-finals, the Meteors lost 42-39 to the London 86ers. The night before, they fell 49-45 in overtime to Blessed Sacramento 2 of Hamilton.

Coached by Bruce MacDonald and Rob Thomson, team members include: Bridget Asser, Natalia Stefanovska, Ishanaa Singh, Amanda Ifejka, Raeanne Car-doza, Gillian Dominico, Jennifer Mason, Sarah Thomson and Tara Brown.
