Al's Memorial Ride tackles cancer again

BY ALYSHIA HIGGINS
Riders, saddle up.
The second annual Al Humphrey Memorial Ride takes place Aug. 3 and organizers are looking for participants, volunteers and sponsorships.

Norma Humphrey and Carin Bacher started the event last year in honour of Norma's late husband, Al, who died in 2006 after battling cancer.

"He was a wonderful man," said Mrs. Humphrey. "He was always there for anybody and everybody."

Mrs. Humphrey said Ms Bacher first came to her with the idea of a memorial ride at the Humphrey's business, Al's Tack Shop, shortly after his death.

The location, on Vandorf Road south of Ballantrae, was fitting, Mrs. Humphrey said. She and her husband used their property in the past to raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for charities at events.

While the duo didn't have time to start the ride the summer following Mr. Humphrey's death, they got to work preparing for the inaugural event in 2007.

"There was a lot of groundwork to get it started," Mrs. Humphrey said. "Everyone had a wonderful time last year, though."

Last year, the event donated $5,000 to the Markham Stouffville Hospital Foundation for a palliative care unit and the Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation's Weekend to End Breast Cancer.

Mrs. Humphrey hopes to do better this year.

"I figure with the response we had last year, we can double those numbers."

The charities receiving the money this year will be Princess Margaret and prostate cancer research.

According to Mrs. Humphrey, more than 20 per cent of the riders who participated in the event last year signed up for the 2008 ride before leaving the grounds.

The event includes a 25-km course through the York Regional Forest, prizes, overnight camping available, lunch, campfire and entertainment from Bill Johnson and The Bones.

First-aid personnel will be on site as well as manned checkpoints throughout the trail should anyone get injured or lost.

Individuals and teams must register before July 20. There is room for 300 horses and riders.

Anyone interested in sponsoring, participating, or volunteering can call Al's Tack Shop at 905-640-2011.
