

SLICK MOVE

Stouffville's David Wallis, 13, is Daddy Warbucks in the production of Annie Jr. at William Berczy Public School in Markham. When he won the part of the bald co-star last fall, he started growing his hair to donate it to Kids for Cancer. Headlines Hair Studio stylist Irene Baxter performed the cut. He's also allowing people to touch his slick scalp, if they donate to cancer research.

Presented by the
Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum
Saturday, June 7th
10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Spend the day exploring 12 heritage sites in our community (free of charge!). Many of these heritage treasures are rarely open to the public. Don't miss this opportunity to see what happens behind-the-scenes!

For a full list of participating local sites: www.doorsopenontario.on.ca

A great way to support local heritage preservation is to become a MUSEUM MEMBER.

You'll receive periodic newsletters notifying you of upcoming museum events, details on behind-the-scenes museum work, and historical topics of local interest. As a bonus, Museum members enjoy discounts on program fees and gift shop purchases, free admission to the annual Antique & Classic Car Show, and invitations to "members only" events.
