

Southlake nurses: Thank you for being shockingly excellent.

SOUTHLAKE
REGIONAL HEALTH CENTRE

At Southlake, our compassionate and utterly incredible nurses play a part in every single interaction, notation, observation and course of action with patients, their families and their healthcare providers. Their actions and acute sense of commitment to their patients and to Southlake speak volumes about their character.

Something very special has been achieved at Southlake ... a mutual admiration so-to-speak. As home to some of the newest, most modern healthcare facilities in the province, and a rapidly growing Regional Health Centre, we are leading the charge in the delivery of healthcare excellence. And it is with the skills and talent of our nurses that we are able to consistently provide the people we serve with care that is second to none.

Our nurses embrace new opportunities and push the envelope. Their commitment to excellence is what makes us excellent.

In a recent survey, our nurses rated Southlake significantly higher than staff at other Ontario hospitals—in some cases close to 20 per cent higher—especially in terms of the sense of teamwork and in terms of quality of care as an important goal.

Every day, our nurses make us different.
