

Stouffville pitcher haunts former teammates with four-hit shutout

Jay Nesbitt did not need to get psyched up when he took to the Memorial Park pitching rubber Thursday.

Facing his former team, the Lake Simcoe Lightning, the Stouffville Menos' hurler tossed seven innings of four-hit ball while striking out five in a 2-0 win in Oshawa City and District Fastball League action.

Backing Nesbitt's performance was some solid defence, led by shortstop Jeff Boadway, who ranged deep into foul territory to catch a fly ball to end the fifth inning with the bases loaded.

In the seventh, with runners on second and third and two out, Menos' centerfielder Greg Dalgarno sprinted deep into the outfield to catch a fly for the final out.

The Menos scored their first run in the fourth inning when Dalgarno and Brett Boyd singled. Dalgarno scored on a sacrifice fly by first baseman Scott Eyre.

The Menos added their final run in the fifth inning when Rich Burkholder singled and was knocked in by Dale Boadway.

The Menos generated six hits off Greg Garrity, who fanned 13 batters and did not allow any walks.

Now 3-1 on the season, the Menos host Scarborough Thursday in Memorial Park at 8:30 p.m.

Tanaka scores again at cup

Stouffville's Corey Tanaka continued to wield a hot stick at the 2008 MasterCard Memorial Cup, scoring a goal to help the Belleville Bulls defeat the host Kitchener Rangers 4-3 in overtime in the final round-robin game Wednesday.

Tanaka had four goals and one assist in three games. That placed him in a tie for third-place in the scoring race of the four-team event.

The Bulls, 2-1 in the tournament, and Rangers, 1-2, met again last night in the semifinal. The winner advances to Sunday's final against the Spokane Chiefs at 4:30 p.m.

Games are broadcast on Rogers Sportsnet (channel 32).
