

SDSS ball team bounced in quarters

The Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans baseball club saw its York Region season come to an end Monday when they lost their tier two quarter-final game to Emily Carr Secondary School (Woodbridge) 8-7 in Markham.

The Spartans held what appeared to be a commanding 6-3 advantage entering the top of the seventh inning.

After recording one out, a combination of some untimely fielding by the Spartans and some hot bats from the Emily Carr offence generated five runs that gave them an 8-6 lead.

The Spartans scored a run in their half of the seventh when Luke Bartell drilled a triple that scored Phil Wood. Bartell was left at third.

Losing pitcher Mike Warner scored two runs and Tyler Harvey played a solid game in the outfield as he ran down three long fly balls for outs.

Tuesday, May 29th, York Region Media Group bid farewell to Classified Manager Ann Campbell. Ann retires after 28 years of service and was honoured with a party held at Madsen's Greenhouse where she was recognized for her commitment to the community.

Mennos pounded, rained out

The Stouffville Mennos did not get off to a good start when they took to the road Wednesday to face the defending Oshawa City and District Fastball League champion Oshawa Ravens.

And in the end, it resulted in a 7-1 loss.

The Ravens got to Mennos' starting pitcher Byron Baranieski by scoring all seven runs in his 3 2/3 innings of work. Baranieski surrendered four hits, walked six and struck out two batters.

Boynton relieved Baranieski and worked 2 1/3 innings of scoreless ball. Prior to his appearance, Boynton had not thrown a practice pitch.

The Mennos scored their only run in the sixth inning without benefit of a hit.

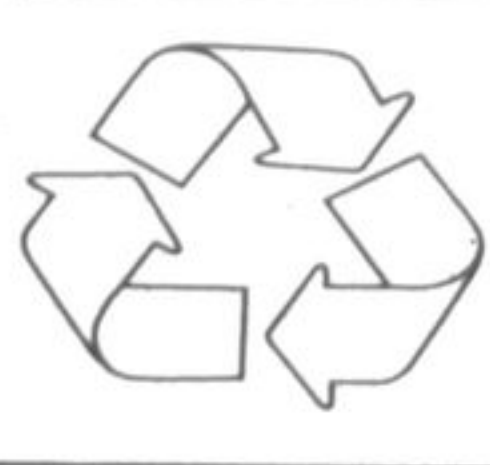

Dale Boadway reached first base on an error and advanced to second when Boynton drew a walk. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch and Boadway scored on a fielder's choice by Scott Eyre.

The Mennos generated just five hits, including two by right fielder Kris Burkholder, off winning pitcher Marty Humphries.

The loss dropped the Mennos' record to 3-3.

Thursday's Mennos' game in Memorial Park with the Newmarket Stingers was cancelled due to wet field conditions and a rainy forecast.

The Mennos visit the Markham Majors Monday at Centennial Park in Markham and host the Ravens Thursday in Memorial Park. Both are 8:30 p.m. starts.
