Bantam Spartans 2nd at cup

This year's Stouffville District Secondary School's bantam boys' rugby team did something no other SDSS bantam or junior team has done in the Barbarian Cup.

They reached the final of what is the unofficial provincial championship for teams of that age group.

Unfortunately for the Spartans' Grade 9 squad, they fell in Monday's final to Uxbridge Secondary School Tigers 38-10 on the St. Joan of Arc Catholic High School synthetic pitch in Maple.

Jared Kuettel scored the lone try for the Spartans, who took a 3-0 lead on a James McLeod penalty kick before the Tigers rallied to win the game.

McLeod also booted the convert on Kuettel's try.

Spartans head coach Tom Mintchev conceded the Tigers were the better team on the day.

"Uxbridge was well coached and very physical. It was tough for our boys. We were outmuscled physically. We lost the physical battles.

"But to reach the final was a good accomplishment. To finish second in the province is fantastic. The boys can't hang their heads."

To reach the final, the Spartans defeated Oakville Trafalgar Secondary School 10-7 earlier in the day.

Kurt Batty and Curtis Crago each scored a try.

JUNIORS REACH SEMIS

The Spartans juniors reached the semi-finals of the Barbarian Cup before they were eliminated 19-7 by Trenton High School Monday.

Jesse Lofthouse scored the lone try for the Spartans, who trailed 19-0 at the half. Oliver Boettcher booted the convert.

Spartans head coach Jamie Hewitt felt the game rested on two factors.

"Defence," he said. "And mistakes. We made a couple in the first half that were costly.

"But we will learn from it."

Hewitt was also quick to give credit to Trenton, whom he said played solid defence.

"We lost only two games all year and we won the York Region title and the Red Hot, so it was a good year," Hewitt said.
