Anne of Green Gables bridge hosting centennial tea

You may drive by it every day and not recognize it from its glory days.

The bridge at Emmanuel International Canada, on Stouffville Road just east of Kennedy Road, has an entertainment past.

It was used in the filming of the TV movie Anne of Green Gables and its sequel in 1985 and 1987.

Need another reminder? Anne Shirley and Gilbert Blythe kissed in the movie on the bridge.

Sun-Tribune editor Jim Mason was present during the filming and took photographs of actress Megan Follows lying in a canoe at the bridge.

100th anniversary of Anne of Green Gables, the book, with Tea at the Bridge Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The event is a fundraiser for the mission. Admission is by donation.

You can have your photograph taken on the bridge.

Uxbridge and Leaskdale, one of the home of Anne author Lucy Maud Montgomery, are hosting a year-long celebration.
