Stouffville's Karen Cockburn acknowledges the crowd after winning silver in the women's trampoline competition at the XXIX Olympiad in Beijing Monday.

Medallist just wanted fun

TV interview with Cockburn, they managed to connect her with Turgeon later that evening from their Stouffville residence.

"I didn't have a cell phone with me during the day and no one could reach me. But the CBC contacted my parents' home (in Unionville) and they gave them my home number. When they made the connection with me, she was definitely surprised to hear me," Turgeon said.

The injury weighed on Cockburn, too.

"The last year's been really tough," she said. "Back in October, I didn't even think I'd make the Games. It was, 'How am I gonna qualify for this?' So, to come through that, then come through the surgery after the championships, make it back on more of a time constraint than I wanted, to come out with this, I'm really happy. I'm proud of what I did this year and how I pulled through that."

For 17 years she has been with her coach, Dave Ross of Richmond Hill.

"It's so hard to believe," she said. "I just started this sport for fun. It wasn't even an Olympic sport. Then it got into the Olympics. I went to three Games. I have a third medal.

"I do this sport for fun and this is just a bonus and it's amazing and I'm just trying to soak it in."

FIGHT OVER 100 DISEASES WITH ONE DONATION

These are just a few of the over 100 liver-related illnesses that threaten the lives of more than 2 million Canadian men, women and children. For 25 years now, the Canadian Liver Foundation has been leading the fight against liver disease and to continue, we need your help.

One simple act of kindness can go so very far.
