Making the cut for cancer kids

Caroline Langlois (left) and Rachael Mortley, with stylist Cristina Angelone, had their hair cut for cancer patients at Casa Massimo Salon in Stouffville. The Grade 3 students at Harry Bowes Public School donated their hair and $400 in pledges to A Child's Voice Foundation, which runs the Angel Hair for Kids program. It takes eight to 10 hair donations and $800 to make one wig. Rachael, 8, was the millennium baby in Stouffville. For more information on the program, go to achildsvoicefoundation.com
