CORRECTIONS

Wrong name for fair princess

In Jim Thomas' column last week, the Markham Fair's first princess from 1954 was wrongly identified. She was Joanne (Robb) Willoughby-Ray, then of Markham.

Jordan scored pair for Clippers

A sports story in our Oct. 11 edition contained an incorrect name. Jordan Brillinger scored two goals for the Stouffville minor peeewe Clippers in a 5-0 win over Richmond Hill. The Sun-Tribune regrets the errors.

Home builder gives back

Geranium Homes has marked its first venture in Stouffville by giving back to the community. The Markham builder opened its Neighbourhoods of Cardinal Point model home on Millard Street east of Hwy. 48 this fall.

LUXURY TOWNHOMES IN NORTHWEST STOUFFVILLE

Geranium principals Earl Rumm and Barry Feiner, president Mario Giampietri and vice-president Boaz Feiner presented Mayor Wayne Emmerson with $5,000 for the Whitchurch-Stouffville Emergency Care Fund.

Geranium's second phase of the development features luxury townhomes set on extra deep ravine lots. Ranging in size from 1,081 to 1,444 square feet, prices start at $264,900.
