

MP goes from mom's hospital bed to victory party

BY ADAM MCLEAN
Staff Writer

Within a few short, emotional hours, Liberal candidate Bryon Wilfert went from his ailing mother's bedside to a podium at the Sheraton Parkway Hotel celebrating his victory on election night.

ton Parkway Hotel celebrating his victory on election night.

Elected for the fifth straight federal election, Mr. Wilfert won by what has become his customary 50 per cent of Richmond Hill votes cast.

It seems his victory was never in question, but whether he would be able to personally celebrate the win with his supporters remained in doubt most of the night.

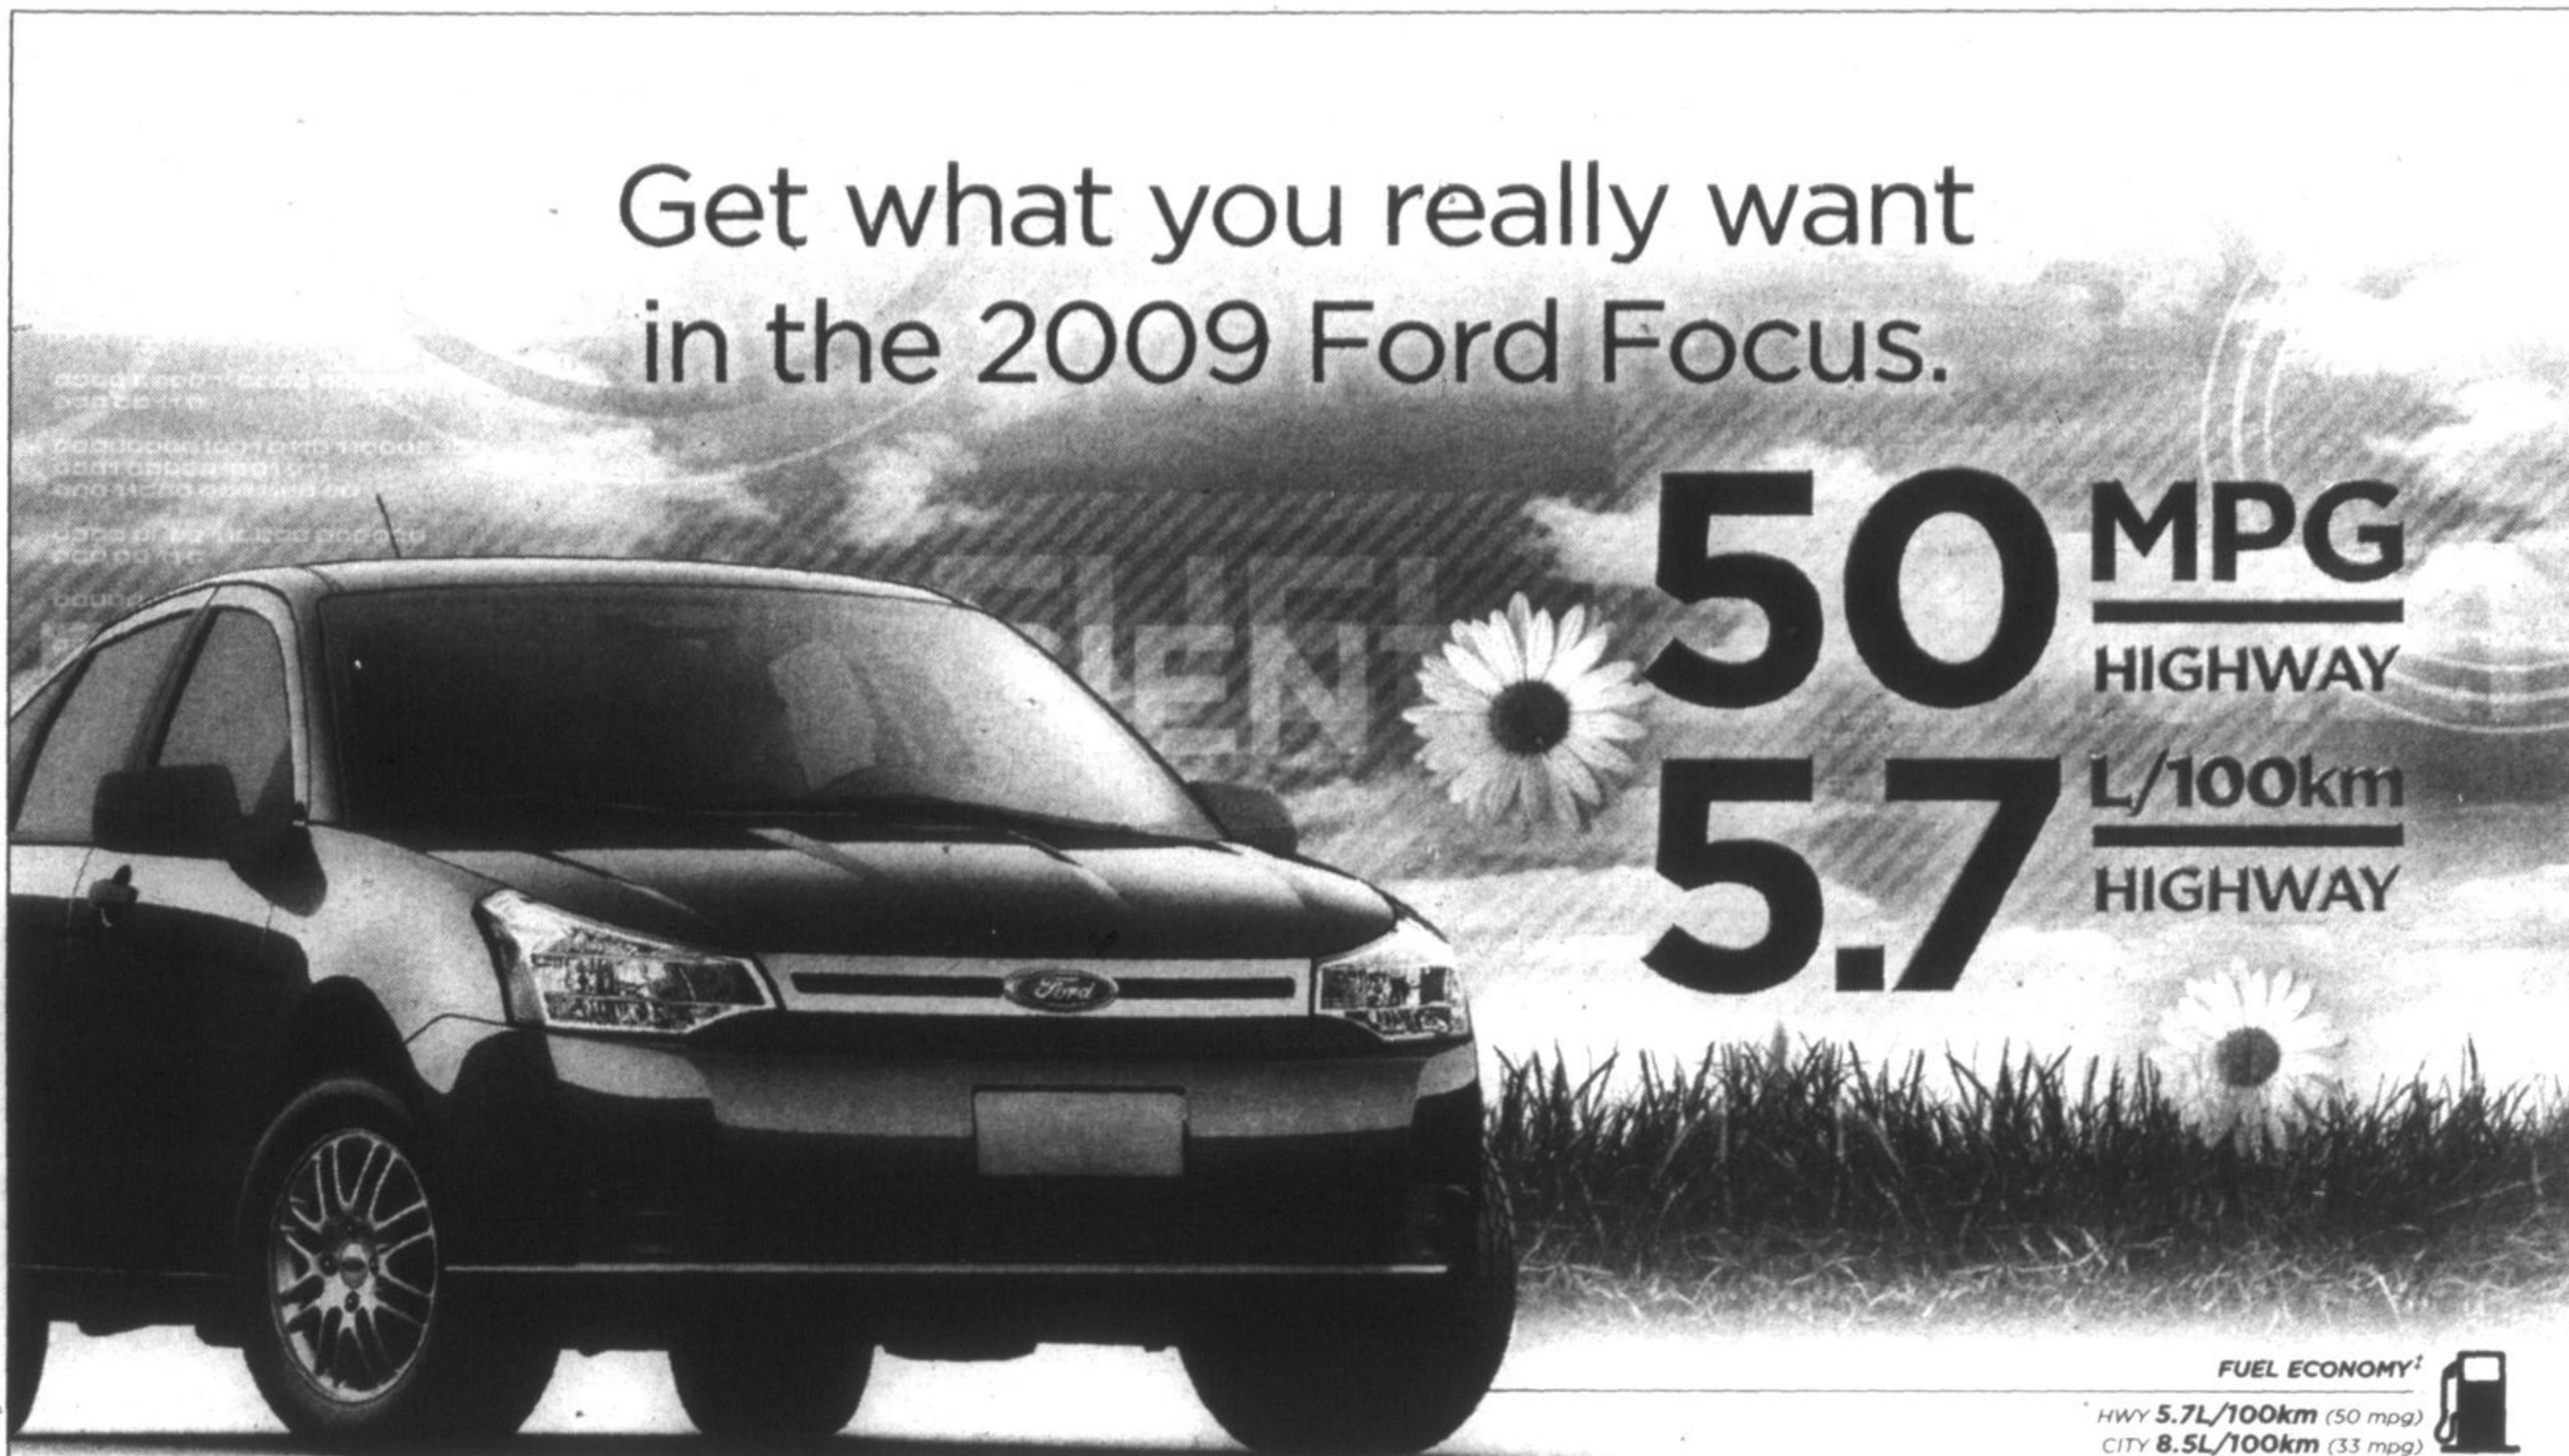

But an improvement in the health of his mother, former Stouffville resident Jacquie Wilfert, at Markham Stouffville Hospital led to Mr. Wilfert celebrating both personally and professionally.

As for another Conservative government holding the reins in Ottawa, Mr. Wilfert says he plans to keep Prime Minister Stephen Harper an honest man.

'I will make sure to keep Stephen Harper's feet to the fire in the Legislature. You can all take solace in the fact that we will have a strong Opposition.'

"I will make sure to keep Stephen Harper's feet to the fire in the Legislature. You can all take solace in the fact that we will have a strong Opposition," he told cheering supporters. Mr. Wilfert represented Whitchurch-Stouffville, in the former riding of Oak Ridges, before redistribution in 2000.
