Vincec wins in Vegas

Mike Vincec's 2008 karting season has been nothing short of a success story.

After capturing the Snap on Stars of Karting East and West Division titles earlier this year, the 17-year-old Stouffville resident added another championship to his trophy case.

Taking to the Las Vegas Motor Speedway course last weekend with his Cameron Motorsports team, Vincec steered his CRG/Maxter to claim the Snap On Stars of Karting ICC National title.

He is the first Canadian to secure the title and receives a full open-wheel season in the Skip Barber National Series.

Vincec will be back in Las Vegas Nov. 20 to 23 to compete in the Skusa Super Nationals.

Hat trick for Hughes

The Stouffville minor peewee A Clippers took three out of a possible four points in two recent Ontario Minor Hockey Association contests.

Playing host to Innisfil last Saturday, the Clippers received single tallies from Ben Sear, Carter King, Tyler Wright and Jeremy Hughes in a 4-4 tie.

In another home contest Tuesday, the Clippers got a hat trick from Hughes in a 6-2 victory over Bradford.

Mitch Witherspoon contributed a goal and one assist, Liam McMahon and Jordan Brillinger also added single tallies.

Mario Rosano and Chris Carter had two assists.

The Clippers play today at East Gwillimbury.

Atoms come back

The Stouffville atom A Clippers skated off with a win and tie in two recent Ontario Minor Hockey Association contests.

Playing host to Newmarket, the Clippers got a goal from Justin Bennett with just one-tenth of a second remaining in regulation time to emerge with a 2-1 win.

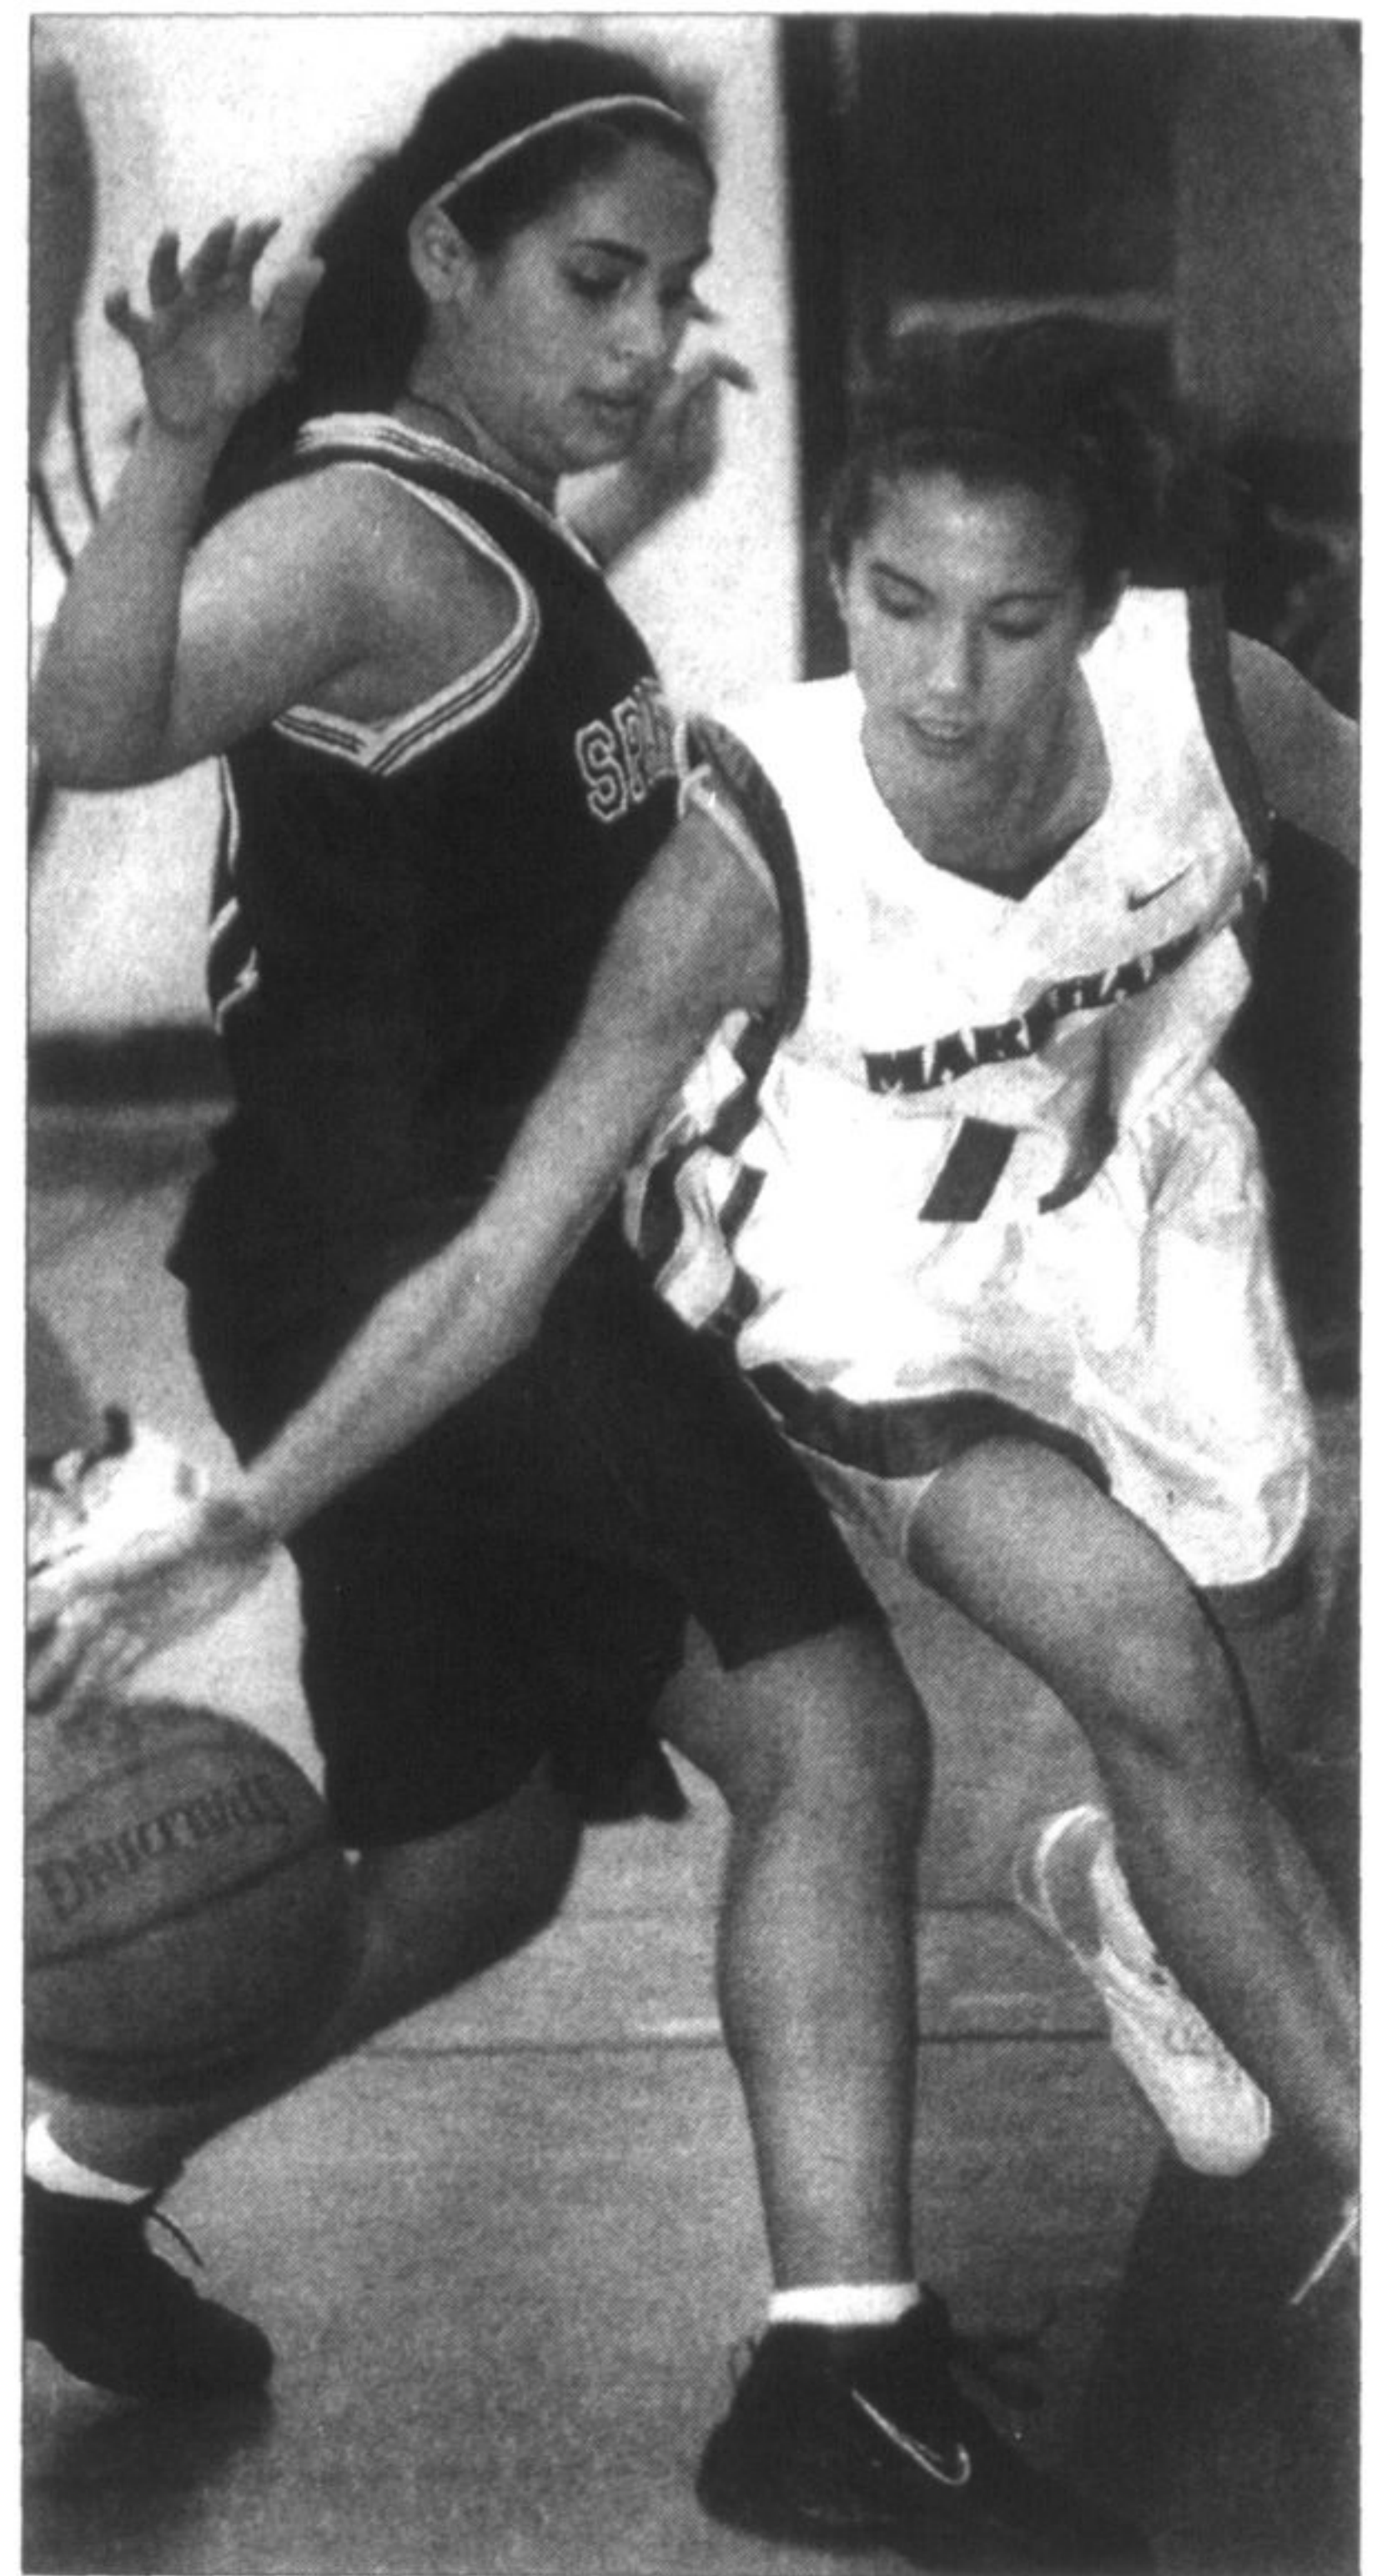

Jake Rodgers scored the first goal for the Clippers.

Tyler Perrett-Swirla and Michael Palladino collected assists.

Taking to the road for a game in King City against Nobleking, the Clippers and hosts battled to a 3-3 tie.

Rogers, Michael Basconcelos and Carson Weeks each scored once for the Clippers, who overcame a 3-1 deficit with three minutes remaining in the third period to salvage a tie.

Bennett, Jackson Savery and Alex Tashos each earned one assist for the Clippers, now 2-5-2 on the season.
