Honour young leaders with a nomination, Stouffville

We have elected leadership in our riding and our country. How about the young leaders of Whitchurch-Stouffville?

It's your turn to nominate and honour them in a provincial program.

"So many of our youth are already giving of their time and energy to make this a great place to live and work," said Sun-Tribune editor Jim Mason, a former judge in the provincial program.

"These young people intuitively understand what the word 'community' is really about and unselfishly give of themselves by volunteering with different local groups and clubs, at school, at churches, with sports, and more."

The Sun-Tribune supports the Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards in Whitchurch-Stouffville to provide recognition for outstanding young people who are, and will continue to be, leaders in our town.

The awards program is co-ordinated by the Ontario Community Newspapers Association (OCNA), of which The Sun-Tribune is a member, and sponsored by TD Canada Trust.

Any Ontario resident aged 6-17 is eligible to receive an Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Award.

"So many of our youth are already giving of their time and energy to make this a great place to live and work,"

Sun-Tribune editor Jim Mason former judge in the provincial program.

Help us by nominating an individual in one of four areas:

• A person involved in worthwhile community service.

• A special young person contributing to their community while living with a physical or psychological limitation.

• An individual who has performed an act of heroism in the past year.

• Good kids who show a commitment to make life better for others and do more than is normally expected of someone their age.

Each nominee will receive a certificate of recognition.

Up to 12 of the nominees and one group will be chosen as the final recipients of the provincial award and invited to a special ceremony held in Toronto next spring.

Nominate an outstanding young person today, and The Sun-Tribune will personally present them with a certificate of recognition and showcase their contributions in this newspaper.

"Help us to pay tribute to our leaders of today and tomorrow," said Mr. Mason.

Nomination deadline for the 2008 Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards is Nov. 30. Nomination forms are available at www.ocna.org or by calling OCNA at 905-639-8720 ext. 228.
