Barbershoppers, Adelines teaming up for rare show

The sound you will hear in Stouffville this Saturday will be harmonious.

Three large choirs will fill Christ Church Anglican with sweet sounds during Harvest Harmony, a pair of concerts.

The Ontario Heartland Sweet Adeline Chorus from Mississauga, the Barons of Barbershop of Mississauga and the Spartan Sound, a 36-voice mixed choir from Stouffville District Secondary School, will take part.

The Ontario Heartland Chorus, under the direction of Anne Prins, defeated 10 choruses in Albany, N.Y., last spring to win their first-ever gold medal. Audiences will be delighted with their singing, choreography and colourful costumes.

STOUFFVILLE CHOIR LEADER

The Barons of Barbershop, under the direction of Stouffville's Jim Rehill, is a popular barbershop ensemble. Since forming in 1996, the Scarborough group has performed more than 300 concerts across the GTA.

The Spartan Sound, directed by Miriam Sellick-Smith, will perform by themselves as well as joining the Sweet Adelines for one number.

The choirs rehearsed together last week. "What sound; it was unbelievable," said Mr. Rehill, a former teacher at SDSS. "We hope people don't miss out on this chance to hear these choirs."

"I'm delighted to be able to bring this concert of Barbershop harmony to Stouffville. The Heartland Chorus is such a wonderful group of singers and to win the gold medal proves that... and because we enjoy singing together, they agreed to come here. Quite often male and female barbershoppers do not perform together, so this makes our show unique."

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

"We have added the delightful sound of Miriam Sellick-Smith's high school choir and when we combine them with the Sweet Adelines, it's an amazing sound."

Songs on the set list will include Once Upon A Time, Wonderful World, You Raise Me Up and Thank You for the Music."

The church is at 254 Sunset Blvd., east of Ninth Line and south of Main Street.

Tickets are $15 from at Card's Appliances, Barthau Jewellers, Christ Church (905-640-1461) or the door.

The shows are at 3 and 7:30 p.m.
