

Heather Hughes named to provincial team

Heather Hughes was one of 40 players chosen to play for one of Ontario's two entries that will take to the ice at the upcoming Hockey Canada's National Women's Under 18 Championships in Napanee from Nov. 5 to 9.

The 17-year-old Stouffville resident, who is captain of her Toronto Junior Aeros club team, was selected to be on the 20-member Team Red squad.

The championship is an eight-team competition featuring many of Canada's prominent young players.

Hughes brother, Bobby, is a Carolina Hurricanes prospect playing for their top farm team in Albany, N.Y. (See story on page 22.)

Their sister, Hayley Hughes, is a sophomore on the Cornell Big Red NCAA hockey team.

Minor midgets now 15-1-1

Connor Cadaret scored two goals while David Beloff, Chris Smith and Taylor Clifford each added singles to propel the Stouffville minor midget Clippers to a 5-3 win over Orillia in Ontario Minor Hockey Association action Sunday in Stouffville.

Curtis Crago, Daniel Perry, Daniel McMahon and Joseph Palladino earned assists. Kyle Pontone played a steady game in goal.

They blanked host Innisfil 3-0 the day before.

Smith ignited the Clippers' offence with two goals while Kyle Sauro had one. Crago, Clifford and Matthew Miniaci assisted.

Gabe Grunwald posted the shutout.

The Clippers scored two impressive victories the week before.

In an Oct. 4 home game against East Gwillimbury, Josh Machesney and Clifford each deposited a pair of goals to propel the Clippers to a 6-2 win.

Smith and Sauro rounded out the scoring for the Clippers with single tallies.

David Beloff earned three assists while Machesney, Miniaci, Perry, McMahon and Smith each had one.

Pontone earned the win.

Against Aurora Oct. 7, the Clippers received a pair of goals from Machesney and a stellar netminding performance from Grunwald in a 5-0 victory.

Clifford, Cadaret and Perry each had single tallies to complete the Clippers' scoring.

McMahon was credited with three helpers while Beloff, Smith and Perry each had one.

Now 15-1-1, the Clippers play Orillia Saturday at the Stouffville Arena at 5:40 p.m. and in Nobleton Sunday.

English rugby team visits SDSS Sunday

The Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans senior boys' rugby team tuned up for a friendly against a touring team from England this weekend by defeating visiting the Dr. J.M. Dennison Secondary School Huskies (Newmarket) 20-17 last Thursday.

Jesse Lofthouse scored two tries, including the game-winner with less than two minutes remaining in regulation time. Patrick Laffan added a try and Matt Raguseo, a member of the national team program, booted a convert and drop kick from 30 metres out with about 10 minutes left in the game.

Spartans' head coach Jamie Hewitt said Raguseo's drop kick was a first for him.

"I couldn't believe it," Hewitt said. "I've never seen it before and I didn't call it. He did it by himself."

Apart from Raguseo's drop kick, Hewitt felt the match was well played by both teams.

The Spartans will play host to the Robert Clack School, a touring team from Dagenham, England, Sunday at 1 p.m.

Stouffville Secondary is at Hoover Park Drive and Weldon Road.
