JUSTIN SHERWOOD

October 26, 2001
Dear Justin...
It's been seven lonely years... since we last saw your handsome face, ...heard you speak, ...saw your smile, ...laughed together, We had such a close, special family.
It will always feel like yesterday since that day we lost you... It feels like forever without you. It will be both those feelings, forever. We still can't believe this has happened to you.
These are also some of the feelings we have now, in our forever aching & sad hearts... Wondering what you would look like as a grown up. Wondering what your life would be like now. Wondering would you be in love or married or a Daddy by now? Most of all, we just miss you. We just ache to be your Mum & Dad in "real time" again.
Without you being here, we feel like empty human shells. It feels that we are always working on a new plan, to help us cope with this reality and keep your memory alive. Feeling like it will be forever, until we can be our family again.
We were blessed to have had such a wonderful, kind, funny, talented son. You made us so very proud.
You are cherished in Heaven, as you were here on Earth. We will love and miss you forever, Justin.
Forever in Our Hearts and prayers... Mum and Dad, your family and friends
P.S. Parents and children, remember, cherish all the loving and sometimes frustrating moments together, for it can all change in a heartbeat... forever.
