Coscarella has Clippers sailing

SPORTS BRIEFS

John Anthony Coscarella scored two goals to ignite the Stouffville minor bantam AE Clippers to a 4-1 win over Markham at the Stouffville Arena last Saturday.

Zach McMahon and Anthony Barresi each added single tallies for the Clippers.

Matt Renzoni collected two assists and Matthew Mathers one.

Alex McKean played a solid game in goal to help preserve the win for the Clippers.

The Clippers will be in Barrie this weekend to take part in a tournament and resume league play Dec. 1 in Markham.

Judokas medal in Brampton

Three students from Stouffville's Sheffield Judo Club earned high placings in competitive debuts at the Tora Judo Club event in Brampton.

Orlon Ross claimed top honours in the 11-12-year-old lightweight division.

In the 12-13-year-old boys' heavyweight division, Josh Cordeiro claimed a silver medal.

Nick Priebe finished fourth in the seven-year-old lightweight class.

Atom AEs split on road

The Stouffville atom AE Clippers took the good with the bad in their last two Ontario Minor Hockey Association outings.

The Clippers received a two-goal effort from Max Von Kaufman in a 5-1 victory over Richmond Hill.

Brody Krabi, Robbie Krawczuk and Cole Miller added single tallies. Hayden Messner earned two assists while Cam McLean, Harry Tratnik and Krawczuk had one each.

In Alliston, the Clippers got into a shootout with TNT and lost 6-4.

Scoring for the Clippers were Krabi, Stone Macaulay, Miller and Messner. Drawing assists were Krawczuk, Cole Gunathunge, Sean O'Neill and Jacob Rendall.

The Clippers are 8-8-4.

Minor atom AEs streaking

The Stouffville minor atom AE Clippers claimed five out of a possible six points with a pair of wins and a tie in recent OMHA action.

The Clippers won over East Gwillimbury 11-0 and Newmarket 4-3 and tied Georgina 3-3.

Against East Gwillimbury, Casey Shankland had two goals and three assists. Anthony Rustico and Cameron Ross each added a pair of goals while Adam Belme, Hunter Jolliffe, Thomas Kroupis, Josh Marshall and Kevin O'Boyle had singles.

Jack Bender, Jordan Kuettel, Ruien Lidster and Thomas O'Leary each earned assists.

Against Newmarket, Belme, Jolliffe, O'Boyle and Rustico each scored once for the Clippers. Jolliffe, Lidster, Rustico and Luke Savage were credited with assists. Helping to preserve the win was some outstanding work in goal by Ethan Rehel.

In their tie against Georgina, Jolliffe, O'Boyle and Shankland each scored once. Kroupis, Ross, Rustico and Ryan Taylor were credited with assists.

The Clippers are in a Barrie tournament this weekend.

Minor peewees gain split

The Stouffville minor peewee A Clippers recorded a win and loss in two Ontario Minor Hockey Association games last weekend.

The Clippers started their weekend off with a 5-3 loss to visiting Orillia Saturday.

Carter King deposited one goal and earned one assist for the Clippers while Mitch Witherspoon and Ben Sear each chipped in with single tallies. Aidan Clifford, Jordan Brillinger and Jeremy Hughes collected one assist apiece.

The Clippers turned their fortunes around the following day when they travelled to Barrie and skated off with a resounding 6-1 win.

Tyler Wright propelled the Clippers' attack with three goals and one assist. Quinon Volpe contributed a goal and one assist while Hughes and Witherspoon each scored once. Ryan Nelson, Clifford, Chad Harbour and Chris Evelyn were credited with one assist apiece.

The Clippers host East Gwillimbury Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Stouffville Arena.

Pontone stars in Clipper goal

The Stouffville minor midjet Clippers were outshot in their Ontario Minor Hockey Association contest against East Gwillimbury Sunday.

But the Clippers won the statistic that mattered most, skating off with a 3-1 win.

Matthew Miniaci scored two goals and added an assist for the Clippers, who led 2-0 after the first and second periods.

Steven Tait scored the game's first goal and collected one assist. Taylor Clifford was credited with one assist.

East Gwillimbury scored their lone goal with 11 seconds remaining in the contest.

Kyle Pontone played solid in net for the Clippers as he stopped 26 of 27 shots. The Clippers directed 15 shots on the East Gwillimbury net.
