

Struggling Spirit suffer first shutout of season

LAST WEEK: Saturday — lost 4-0 vs. Newmarket Hurricanes. Two wins, one overtime win, three shootout wins, three shootout losses, 29 losses for 15 points. Last place in Central Division.

COMING UP: Sunday vs. Wellington Dukes at Ray Twinney Complex, Newmarket, 5:15 p.m.; Monday vs. St. Michael's Buzzers at Ray Twinney Complex, Newmarket, 2:30 p.m. Games are part of league's Central Division Showcase Tournament.

GAME NOTES: The Spirit were hoping Santa Claus might give them an early Christmas present when they played host to the Newmarket Hurricanes last Saturday. Instead, the Hurricanes played the role of Scrooge and skated off with a 4-0 win. The loss was the third straight for the Spirit, but marked the first time they were shut out this season. After a scoreless first period, the Hurricanes scored twice in the second, including once on a power play, to take a 2-0 lead entering the final frame. In the third period, the Hurricanes took advantage of two Spirit infractions to add their final two with the odd-man advantage including the final goal with just 30 seconds left in the contest. Not helping matters for the Spirit was the absence of several regulars. Among them were defencemen Ryan Goldberg, who attended to family matters; Jarred Seymour (knee injury); Myles Gomes (serving second of a two-game suspension) and forwards Dustin Laren (cold) and Craig McDowell (serving second of two-game suspension). As well, forward Massimo Lamacchia will miss the next two games after incurring a gross misconduct penalty late in the third period.

INSIDER: The weather wreaked havoc on the Spirit and Markham Waxers in their scheduled Ontario Junior Hockey League contest last Friday in Markham as the winter weather forced a cancellation of the game along with others in the league. The game is slated to be replayed Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. Spirit head coach Mark Joslin will be without Laren and Lamacchia for their club's next two games at the Central Division Showcase Tournament in Newmarket. Laren will be absent for family reasons while Lamacchia will begin serving his two-game suspension. With the Christmas holiday break now in effect, the Spirit cannot make any trades until Jan. 2. The league's trading deadline is midnight Jan. 10.

GENERALLY SPEAKING: Considering his club played with just four defencemen and could not get any emergency call-ups for Saturday's game, Joslin praised the effort his manpower deprived troops gave.

"We played okay in the first period, but we ran out of gas in the second period. Although Newmarket got three power-play goals, our penalties were ones we took because we were fatigued with all of the guys that we were missing," he said.
