

GOOD TO GO IN THE SNOW

Scott Prestula, left, gets airborne coming down the hill at Memorial Park last Sunday after the snowstorm that blanketed Whitchurch-Stouffville, causing misery for drivers but winter joy for Scott and his friends. Below, Sam Luff, 7, makes his assault on the hill in his GT racer. At the bottom, Maizie Lovatt, 11, flies down the hill. That third leg belongs to snow-obscured sister Ellie, who was along for the ride. If the snow and cold return for Dec. 31, Memorial Park will be the scene for skating and sleigh rides as part of the mayor's New Year's celebrations.
