RESponsible GAMBLING COUNCIL
SERVICE COORDINATORS
Responsible Gaming Resource Centre

The Responsible Gambling Council is one of the world's leading experts in problem gambling prevention. A new Responsible Gaming Resource Centre (RGRC) will soon open at Casino Rama, located near Orillia. The Centre will provide on-site information about safer play and many other topics about responsible gambling. The Centre staff will also provide immediate assistance and referrals to patrons who may be concerned about their own gambling or that of someone close to them. The Centre will be open 11:00 am - 2:00 am, 7 days a week.

The Council is seeking to fill 3 Full-Time and 2 Part-Time Service Coordinator positions for the new Responsible Gaming Resource Centre.

- Responsibilities include:
- Participating in the design and delivery of prevention and awareness programs/health promotion.
 - Assisting patrons who may be concerned about their own gambling or that of someone close to them. This may involve crisis management, short term assistance and referrals to community agencies.
 - Interaction and collaboration with gaming staff and community agencies in the delivery of new awareness initiatives.
 - Communications and event management.

The Service Coordinator must possess outstanding skills in communications and human services that may come from a range of backgrounds including the social sciences, health promotions, individual and family counselling, public health nursing, and related fields. The successful candidates will be sensitive to the needs of individuals who are experiencing problems and demonstrate excellent judgment and the ability to quickly establish rapport with the people we serve. Experience in the delivery of community educational events/programs is also a key requirement. A second language in Mandarin or Cantonese is a highly desirable asset.

Candidates must be flexible to work shifts, including afternoons, evenings, weekends and holidays. Some overnight travel to satellite locations within the Hub area will be required. The rate of remuneration is $25.82 per hour.

Resumes with covering letters must be received by January 16, 2009 and include the reference number to clearly indicate which position you are interested in applying for.
