Town's green lands grow

York Region is getting greener. Regional council approved the purchase of 71 acres in Whitchurch-Stouffville to protect it from future development.

The Oak Ridge Moraine Foundation provided $80,000 of the $360,000 purchase price of the lands adjacent to the north tract of the York Regional Forest. York Region intends to join the tracts, along with the nearby Bender and Graves tract, creating a nature trail for residents.

The region's share of the cost came from a reserve fund set aside for the securement of green lands. Council also agreed to extend its partnership with the Oak Ridges Moraine Trust for another year at a cost of $40,000.

2.5% tax hike proceeding

The region's 2009 operating budget, and the 2.5-per-cent tax levy that comes with it, are on schedule for approval in February.

"I question why we don't move on and get it done," Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Wayne Emmerson told last Thursday's council meeting.

The process slowed last month when several regional councillors, lead by Markham Mayor Frank Scarpitti, urged staff to see if they could put forward a plan that would maintain current tax levels.

The hike is equivalent to about $49 a year for an average homeowner.
